

CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

Thank you for your interest in participating in Project Bread's Holiday Card program. By agreeing to sell Project Bread's holiday cards, you are showing your commitment to helping hungry children and families throughout the state.

This agreement is made by and between Project Bread and Your Organization. Project Bread wishes to sell its holiday cards by consigning the cards to your organization for sale. Your organization wishes to attempt to sell the holiday cards through its own sales efforts.

1. Our Commitment:

- a. Delivery of Goods. Project Bread will arrange for the delivery of holiday cards to your organization by November 15, 2014 with all shipping and handling charges to be paid by Project Bread. Your organization will not be held responsible for the loss or damage of goods prior to their delivery.
- b. Replenishing your inventory. If you would like to receive more holiday cards, you may call Morgan Bleimeyer at 617-239-2539 at any time throughout the holiday season, and he will send you more cards.
- c. Display Materials. Project Bread will provide you with requested signage.

2. In exchange, we ask that you:

- a. Display. Your organization agrees to display the cards in an attempt to promote Project Bread's mission to alleviate, prevent, and ultimately end hunger in Massachusetts.
- b. Pricing. Your organization will sell Project Bread Holiday Cards for $15/pack.
- c. Consignment Period. The consignment period begins upon the delivery of Holiday Cards to your organization and will terminate on December 31, 2015, unless sooner terminated by your organization.
- d. Return of the Goods. All goods remaining unsold by your organization will be returned to Project Bread by January 5, 2015.
- e. Payment. Your organization will be entitled to retain $2.50 per pack of holiday cards sold. By January 31, 2015, your organization will send Project Bread a check in the amount of $12.50 per pack of cards sold, less shipping costs.
