DEFINITIONS

- A. "Document" means any written or graphic matter or other means of preserving thought or expression, and all tangible things from which information can be processed or transcribed, including the originals and all non-identical copies, whether different from the original by reasons of any notation made on such copy or otherwise, including, but not limited to, correspondence, email, memoranda, notes, messages, letters, telegrams, teletype, telefax, bulletins or other communications, circulars, policies, forms, pamphlets, notices, statements, journals, postcards, memoranda or notes of intraoffice and interoffice telephone calls, diaries, manuals, calendars, desk pads, scrapbooks, notebooks, chronological data, minutes, books, reports, magazines, booklets, brochures, instructions, charts, ledgers, invoices, purchase orders, statements of account, credit and debit memoranda, loan agreements, bills, installment contracts, mortgages, deeds of trust, security agreements, certificates of title, financing statements, instruments, expense accounts, work sheets, receipts, returns, computer printouts, prospectuses, financial statements, schedules, worksheets, affidavits, contracts, agreements, promissory notes, partnership agreements, articles of incorporation, catalogue price lists, canceled checks, deposit slips, bank statements, bank books, receipt and disbursement journals, tax returns, check stubs, credit card receipts, income statements, profit and loss statements, drafts, certificates, tabulations, questionnaires, tables, sketches, tax reports, working papers, computer data (including information or programs stored in a computer, whether or not ever printed out or displayed), resumes, address books, appointment books or telephone logs, wire transfer receipts and confirmations, transcripts, statistics, surveys, magazine or newspaper articles, releases, deposition transcripts, pleadings, orders, appraisals, estimates, valuations, opinions, studies, analyses, summaries (and any and all drafts, alterations and modifications, changes, and amendments of any of the foregoing), graphics or oral records or representations of any kind, including without limitation, blueprints, photographs, negatives, charts, graphs, maps, microfiche, microfilm, videotape, recordings, motion pictures, speeches, and electronic, mechanical, electric, or chemical recordings or representations of any kind (including without limitation, tapes, cassettes, disks, recordings), as well as any medium of expressions, fixed and in tangible form. Your search for these electronically stored documents shall include all of your computer hard drives, floppy discs, cloud storage, compact discs, backup and archival tapes, removable media such as zip drives, password protected and encrypted files, databases, electronic calendars, personal digital assistants, mobile devices, smartphones, tablets, SMS or MMS text messages, cellular telephone based text communications, Blackberry/Research in Motion “PIN” messages, any text based messages transmitted through a proprietary or public “chat” service (e.g., Google Chat, ICQ Chat, AOL Instant Messenger, MSN Messenger, etc.), proprietary software and inactive or unused computer disc storage areas. All electronically stored information produced shall be produced in its native format, and all requests expressly include requests for all metadata associated with the files to be produced. All electronically stored information shall include, without limitation, writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, documents, sound recordings, images, and other data or data compilations which are stored in any medium from which information can be obtained either directly or, if necessary, after translation by the responding party into a reasonably usable form as defined in Rules 1.280 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and §90.951 of the Florida Evidence Code. Copies of Documents, which are not identical duplications of the originals or which contain additions to or deletions from the originals or copies of the originals if the originals are not available shall be considered to be separate documents.

- B. “Communication” means any oral or written statement, dialogue, colloquy, discussion, conversation or agreement and, also, means any transfer of thoughts or ideas between persons (as defined herein) by means of documents and includes any transfer of data from one location to another by electronic or similar means, and shall include any private or public message or statement transmitted through any social network or media.
- C. “Any and all documents” means every document or group of documents or communications as above defined known to you, and every such document or communication which can be located or discovered by reasonably diligent effort.
- D. “You” and “your” means and refers to each person and entity to whom these requests are directed and any employee, agent, attorney, any other person acting for, or on behalf of, or under the authority or control of such person or entity, or others who are in possession of or who may have obtained information for or on behalf of such person or entity. It also means and refers to any legal entity as to which such person or entity has served, or does serve, as an officer, director, member, manager, partner, direct owner, or indirect owner.
- E. As used herein, the singular and masculine form of nouns and pronouns shall embrace, and be read and applied as, the plural or feminine or neuter, as circumstances may make appropriate.

- F. "And" as well as "or" shall be construed either disjunctively or conjunctively, as necessary to bring within the scope of this request any documents which might otherwise be construed to be outside of its scope.
- G. "Relate to" including its various forms such as "relating to," shall mean: consist of, refer to, reflect, or be in any way logically or factually connected with the matter discussed.
- H. "Including" is used in the sense of specification and is not to be construed as a word of limitation.
- I. "Partnerships" means S&P Associates, General Partnership and P&S Associates, General Partnership or either of them.
- J. As used herein, "identify" or "identification" means to set forth:
  - a. When used with reference to a person:
    - i. Full name;
    - ii. Present or last known business address; and if an individual, his present or last known address and telephone number;
  - b. When used with reference to a document:
    - i. The date the document bears, and if not, under the date it was written;
    - ii. Name and address of each person who wrote it or participated in the writing of it;
    - iii. The name and address of each person to whom it was addressed and each person to whom a copy was identified as being directed;
    - iv. The name and address of each person who received a copy of the document;
    - v. A description of the document; for instance, a letter, memorandum, etc.;
    - vi. The present location or custodian or if unknown, its last known location or custodian;
    - vii. The present location or custodian of each known copy, or if unknown, its last known location or custodian;
    - viii. If any document is no longer in your possession, or subject to your control, state what disposition was made of it, the reason for such disposition, and the date thereof.
  - c. When used with an oral communication:
    - i. The persons participating in such oral communication;
    - ii. The date, number (telephone) and place at which each person who participated in or heard the oral communication was located;
    - iii. A description of the circumstances surrounding the communication; for instance, meeting, speech, or conversation;
    - iv. The name of each person who was present other than the participants; and
    - v. The substance of the oral communication.

INSTRUCTIONS

- K. All categories of documents to be produced and definitions herein are to be construed broadly. If there is a question whether a category includes a particular document or group of documents, it shall be resolved in favor of production.
- L. All documents are to be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business, including by copying the file folders from which responsive documents are taken. In addition, you are requested to number, organize, and label all responsive documents to correspond with the enumerated request and to identify the person from whose files each document is taken.
- M. You are requested to produce all documents not subject to objection that are known by, possessed or controlled by, or available to you or any of your attorneys, accountants, consultants, representatives, employees, officers, directors, partners or other agents. This duty is not to be limited or affected by the fact that the same document is available through another source.
- N. If any document is known to exist but cannot be produced, that document is to be specifically identified as precisely as possible and the reasons for the inability to produce that document stated.
- O. With respect to any document which is withheld on a claim of privilege, you shall provide a statement signed by its attorney setting forth as to each such document the following information:
  - (i) The name(s) of the sender(s) of the document.
  - (ii) The name(s) of the author(s) of the document.
  - (iii) The name of each person to whom the document or copies thereof were sent or provided.
  - (iv) The name of each person to whom the contents of such document, or any portion thereof, was disclosed.
  - (v) The job title of each individual identified in (a), (b), (c), and (d) above.
  - (vi) The date of the document.
  - (vii) A brief description of the nature and subject matter of the document.
  - (viii) The nature and legal basis of the privilege asserted with respect thereto.
