If you want a big horse to check cattle on, he's the one, but I have never roped on him, but have logged & ponied on him. He clips easy, picks up feet well. Take a look at him. Don't pass him up.

DAISYS POCO D BAR	SONNYS ADVERSARY
	DAISEYS PRIDE

Pansy is a nicely started 3 yr. old mare. I broke her as a 2 yr. old & rode her 100+ days last summer, then will have another 6 weeks of riding on her by sale day. Pansy loads well, clips & picks up feet with no problems. She has a real nice smooth gate & very soft in the face. I have had my 1 1/2 yr. old grandson on her, she didn't mind. If looking for a horse for the whole family, she is the one or maybe the kids' nice 4-H prospect. She sidepasses to a gate. I have logged a tire, played with her on barrels & poles. She's a real nice mare. Take a look. I do encourage you to take a ride on her.

Pecos is a 14H, 880 lb. bundle of heart. He's seen lots of country & will trot as long as you can stand to ride him. He's currently earning his living in a feed lot. Gentle enough for beginners, but tough enough for anybody. He is soft sided, great at working around gates & a willing partner. He's a special find for anybody wanting a smaller horse.

I have used this mare for team sorting & penning and have won money on her in these events. I have started roping with her out of the box & roping in the pen & feel she is more of a heeler. I have gone on any trail rides with her & she has done very well. I have been in three ranch rodeos in the last month & have won money with her.

SPent last year on a farm/ranch in Rose, Nebraska. Familiar with riding across pastures & corn stalks pushing cow calf pairs. Will never get tired & is very healthy, strong as they come. He's made for the rancher or the active rider. When the saddles off, he's gentle & shrills for attention. Had W. Nile & Tetanus shots this spring.

AUGUST 16. HOT SALE PRICES! 250 head total sold during the day. Just a few of the sales shown are pictured. 65 saddle horses were in the offering, not big line up but full house of Buyers. Buyer per horse ratio was up big time. Buyers from 6 state area were out shopping for that well broke horse, especially geldings. Many Buyers went home unable to buy the horse they liked in their budget range and most Sellers went home happy after receiving hundreds of dollars more than they expected.

In my book, it does not matter where a horse sells in the sale, the horse needs to sell himself with his owners help in presentation, The Reserve or 2nd top horse was not in our mail out catalogue, but listed in sale Supplement page to catalogue, consigned only few days before the sale and sold for $5500. He showed his good looks along with rope & cattle knowledge in the sale preview – enough to get all the Buyers' attention.

Open Consignment Sale – The 2nd to the last horse to sell for the day sold for $2300. Another horse in the open Consingment sale, but 1st one to sell in that sale, sold for $2500. Many other Open Consignment horses sold $1400 to $1700.

LOOSE HORSE SALE: Hot sale! Sold 195 Head. Dollars higher! Amazing prices. Cleone gets a enjoyable break during the sale. Thank you to Consignor of lot 16, Emit Witt, for fun ride in his beautiful carriage with his team of mules he had in our sale. Unfortunately the left hand mule had a light soundness problem that required pain medication for long trips or this great team of mules would of sold for much more.

To insure all horses will be at the sale, we do NOT give out our consignors phone numbers. Please do not call and ask for them.
