

SPEAKERS

Karron Maidment, RN, LMFT

Karron Maidment is Program Coordinator of the Obsessive Compulsive Disorder Intensive Treatment Program at the UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute. Karron has over 17 years experience in treating and researching patients with severe anxiety disorders. She is a Registered Nurse and a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. She has provided many workshops and seminars on obsessive compulsive disorders and hoarding and their treatment, and has written extensively on compulsive hoarding. Karron is also a member of the Obsessive Compulsive Foundation, Association for the Advancement of Behavior Therapy, Anxiety Disorders Association of America, California Alliance for Marriage and Family Therapists, and was Vice President of the Obsessive Compulsive Spectrum Disorders Association.

Code Enforcement

Each region will feature 1-2 code enforcement officers who will discuss housing and habitability issues with compulsive hoarders, and how cities and counties enforce laws and regulations affecting hoarders. In addition, they may highlight programs or services to help compulsive hoarders come into compliance with housing regulations.

Statewide Training For Adult Protective Services Workers

“Compulsive Hoarding Among the Adult Pro- tective Services Popu- lation”

Training will be provided on the following dates and locations:

March 2-3, 2006 (Redding)

March 21-22, 2006 (Sacramento)

March 29-30, 2006 (Fresno)

April 4-5, 2006 (San Bernardino)

This training is the second in a series of trainings funded by the California Department of Social Services through the Child and Family Policy Institute of California for Adult Protective Services staff over a three year period of time. This training is in response to county requests for higher level training in Adult Protective Services.

Goals

The goals of this training are to:

1. Increase the APS worker's knowledge of compulsive hoarding behavior and its treatment based on current research and clinical experiences
2. Increase the APS worker's knowledge of current code enforcement issues affecting compulsive hoarders
3. Improve APS workers' ability to more effectively assist compulsive hoarders

Objectives

At the end of this training, APS workers will be able to:

1. Differentiate normal cluttering and hoarding from compulsive hoarding
2. Understand how compulsive hoarding is diagnosed and treated
3. Learn practical and effective tips for helping compulsive hoarders
4. Decide when to bring in professional counselors and organizing experts to help compulsive hoarders in dealing with their disorder
5. Understand specific health and safety, and housing, codes that compulsive hoarders may be violating
6. List the elements that code enforcement personnel are looking for when dealing with compulsive hoarders

REGISTRATION

Please select a location and either one of two dates for that location. There is no fee for the training. See next page for additional instructions. Trainings will be held from 9:30a.m. to 4:00p.m.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS (CEUs)

The APS Statewide Training is approved as a Continuing Education provider by the Board of Behavioral Sciences PCE 347.

Courses meet the qualifications for continuing education credits for CAMFTs and/or LCSWs as required by the Board of Behavioral Sciences. Applicants are required to complete the full workshop hours to receive a CEU certificate. NO EXCEPTIONS. Time will be strictly monitored.

PARTNERS

There are five Regional Training Academies in California that provide child welfare and other human services training to counties throughout the State. For the three-year APS Training Grant that the Child and Family Policy Institute (CFPIC) has with the California Department of Social Services (CDSS), four Regional Training Academies are involved. Each Regional Training Academy has a geographical responsibility that has worked well in child welfare training because trainings are provided regionally and in counties. For the APS Training Grant, limited funding does not allow for more than four regional training sites (Redding, Sacramento, Fresno, and San Bernardino).

The following chart shows the four training sites and the host Regional Training Academy:

Training	Host Academy
Redding	Northern California Training Academy
Sacramento	Bay Area Academy
Fresno	Central California Child Welfare Training Academy
San Bernardino	Academy for Professional Excellence

Registration Procedure:

Select the regional training site and date that works best for you or your county. Please fax the registration information to the Host Academy above at least one week before the date of the training so that we have enough time to make arrangements for copies, room logistics, and refreshments/meals. The contact information is below:

Acknowledgements

The Child and Family Policy Institute of California thanks the California Department of Social Services, Adult Services Branch, for funding Adult Protective Services training and these specialized training series. Last year, CFPIC in partnership with the Protective Services Operations Committee (PSOC) of the County Welfare Directors Association (CWDA) sponsored the first series on “Financial Abuse Investigations.” This year, CFPIC, in partnership with the Regional Training Academies and PSOC, is sponsoring training on “Hoarding” and “Substance Abuse Among the Elderly and Disabled.”
