

Safety Training

Raising Safety Awareness in Construction

- Date: Thursday May 20, 2014
- Time: 2:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
- Place: AGC Houston, 3825 Dacoma Street; Houston, Texas 77092
- Price: Free to AGC Houston Members and Non Member Organizations
- Content: This training seminar focuses on preventing frequently-cited construction hazards. The Focus Four Hazards in Construction are conducted as four-hour awareness training focusing on the four greatest dangers of working on a construction site—falls, electrocutions, caught-between and struck-by's. Participants who complete this course will obtain an OSHA certificate.

This is a free course offered through an alliance between the AGC Houston Chapter and the OSHA Houston North and OSHA Houston South Area Offices. This course is offered in both English and Spanish and is open to all AGC Houston members and Non member organizations.
