IIABC COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM QUALIFICATIONS AND SELECTION PROCESS

OBJECTIVE: To promote goodwill within the Independent Insurance Agents of Broward County by providing a monetary scholarship (maximum $1,000) to a IIABC member's or member employee's child who is a college-bound high school senior and has demonstrated a high standard of conduct, both academically and through extracurricular activities.

AWARD QUALIFICATIONS: Nominees must:

1. Be the child of an employee of any IIABC member in good standing.
2. Be a high school senior who has been accepted by any accredited college or university.
3. Have demonstrated high standards of conduct academically and through extracurricular activities.

SELECTION CRITERIA: The Scholarship Committee will compare and select nominees based on the following criteria:

1. Nominees who are interested in a business degree and will be a full time student,
2. Nominees must demonstrate academic achievement above and beyond their peers with at least a 3.5 grade point average or its equivalent, and
3. Nominees who have participated in high school or community extracurricular activity through meaningful and exemplary involvement above and beyond the performance of others involved.

NOMINATING PROCESS:

1. Current IIABC members may submit nominations to the IIABC office by July 1, 2012.
2. A certified copy of the nominee's high school grade report must be provided
3. A resume or list of participation must be provided so that the committee will have an organized synopsis of the nominee's academic and extracurricular accomplishments to review.
4. An essay must be provided telling the selection committee about your accomplishments and career goals.
5. The committee will review the submissions along with other nominations submitted. The committee will make their selection before the July meeting.
6. The announcement and recognition of the selected candidates will be held in July.
7. The IIABC scholarship payment will be made directly to the college. Payment will be issued upon receipt of complete name and address of college and social security number of student.
