

Warren Featherstone Reid Award Nomination Form 2014

A graduate of the University of Washington, Reid served under Senator Warren G. Magnuson for almost 20 years, advising Congress on initiatives such as Medicare and Medicaid and working to expand federal support for research. He also helped establish the Nurse Training Act, the National Health Service Corps, and the National Health Manpower Act. As a later advisor to Governor Booth Gardner, Reid helped to pass the Basic Health Plan and the Washington Health Service Act of 1993. Warren Featherstone ("Feather") Reid passed away on October 20, 2002.

The nomination form and accompanying materials must be postmarked, hand-delivered, faxed or sent by electronic mail on or before May 13, 2014.
