

House of Lords, London

Experience Dinner at The House of Lords, with an Olympic theme!

This is your chance to tour the House of Lords and enjoy dinner with the Lord Moynihan, Chairman of the British Olympic Association.

A visit to the Houses of Parliament has always been a hugely popular Branch event. This particular evening is being jointly hosted by Berkshire, Buckinghamshire and Oxfordshire Branches so it promises to be a sell out.

The evening will start with a guided tour of the House. Your guide will deliver the history of Parliament and will answer any questions during the interactive tour.

Dinner will commence with an aperitif, followed by a sumptuous 3-course dinner with wine; rounded off with coffee and chocolate truffles.

This is a private function hosted by Lord Moynihan, Chairman of the British Olympic Association, a member of the Olympic Board and a non-executive Director of The London Organising Committee for the Olympic Games and The Paralympic Games Limited. We will hear from Lord Moynihan over dinner and have the opportunity for an open discussion on the link between Business and competitive sport as well as receiving an update on the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

The House of Lords is a very special place and this is a unique experience. You might consider inviting as your guest a special customer, a member of your staff, your spouse or your partner. Book now and avoid disappointment.
