Important Facts You Should Know

- You must review the project Notice and Consent Form which explains how the JRS will collect, use and disclose your personal information. It is your obligation to review the content of the Notice and Consent form and to advise the JRS of any questions and/or concerns you may have. Once your registration has been approved, it is understood you have accepted the Terms and Conditions as outlined in this form.
- Qualified job seekers will be referred to employers in accordance with each project agreement. In order to meet specific hiring considerations, job seekers must indicate and provide proof for verification.
- A minimum age of 16 is required to work on most construction projects in accordance with various acts, including The Employment Standards Code of Manitoba.
- Incomplete registrations including missing personal information cannot be processed and will be returned to you.
- You will receive confirmation when your registration is processed.

- To keep your registration active and indicate your continued interest in being referred to employers, you must renew your registration every six months. If you have acquired new skills, present documentation so JRS can update your Skills Profile. JRS will NOT remind you when your renewal date is due (exceptions may be made in certain circumstances as deemed by JRS).
- If your name, telephone, address or contact information changes, you can contact JRS and update your registration anytime. You do not have to wait until your registration renewal date comes due.
- If you are currently working on a project, please indicate on the Employment History form.
- If you are instructed by your local union to pre-register, it is important to note pre-registration is not considered an “active” registration. You will not be made available for other referral opportunities.
