Weekly Rotary News

—Our Annual Harvest Potluck Meeting will take place at The NH Boat Museum Tuesday October 23rd 5:30 PM —

Greetings all—Mal Cook was able to provide some meeting details in my absence.

President-elect George Pacheco presided over the meeting. George as John Peterson to lead us in song, John Morgan as for the blessing. Sergeant-of-Arms George Soderberg led the pledge and the Rotary Four Way Test. Secretary John Morgan introduced our visitors as follows: Zach Tarter, Guest Speaker, -Jayne Britton, Assistant Governor, -Tom McCabe Visiting Rotarian, -Sandy Shultz Honorary Rotarian and Dr. Rich Neal Jr. Honorary Rotarian. The winning breakfast raffle ticket was won by Don McBride. Happy $$ were collected by George S. Jane Milligan requested all members to sign a get well card for Dennis Bean who underwent some surgery and is home recovering.

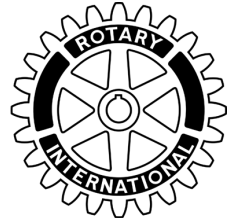

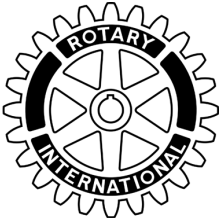

Assistant Governor Jayne Britton spoke of program collecting crutches and wheel chairs from local recycling facilities for forwarding overseas. Mal Cook volunteered to work with the Alton facility towards this effort. Mal Cook informed Jayne, also President of the Ossipee Rotary Club, the executive director of the Castle In the Clouds museum was interested in joining the Ossipee Club. Jayne will follow up and introduce him to their members. Jane Milligan then introduced Zach Tarter who invited members to attend two seminars sponsored by Edward Jones Investment Group. The first seminar held at the Inn October 25th from 5 to 7 PM. Featured will be a speaker from the Wellington Management Group and present a workshop on fiscal outcomes that could occur by year end as a result of the election outcomes. See pg. 2
