

Human Development
and Family Science
COLLEGE OF
HUMAN SCIENCES

Linking Gerontology & Geriatrics:

Proceedings, materials and resources for health care and other professionals working with seniors.

View Videos from 2013: Health Promotion for Seniors, Grandparents and Grandchildren

Free sessions with registration at <http://osu-okgec.okstate.edu/conference-march-7>
Except if nursing CEUs are requested. ($25 per online session)

GRANDPARENTS & GRANDCHILDREN: INTERGENERATIONAL CONCERNS

March 7, 2013

Medical Literacy: Closing the Communication Gap

Featuring: Todd Brockman, MD

Grandparents & Healthcare Consent: Addressing the Challenges

Featuring: Shari Moore, BSN, RN

Hazards & Disasters: Where are Children, Grandparents & Caregivers?

Featuring: Michael Gavin, AS & Samantha LaFever

How Can We Help Grandparents Who Are Raising Grandchildren?

Featuring: Jane Garner, MA

Ethics & Mental Health Practices with Older Adults

Featuring: Sue Jacobs, PhD

Living Longer, Living Stronger: Chronic Health Concerns in Rural Oklahoma

Featuring: Reena Shetty, MPA; Clark Miller, MA & Zachary Root, MA

Is It Alzheimer's or Just Normal Aging?

Featuring: Diana Woods, MA

Our Purpose: Linking Gerontology and Geriatrics activities serve health care, social behavioral professionals, other professionals and family and community members working with older adults in rural Oklahoma.

Contact: Tammy Henderson, Ph.D. at linking.gero.geri@okstate.edu or 405-744-7511

For more information: <http://osu-okgec.okstate.edu>

Register at: http://humansciences.okstate.edu/2014_LGG_Conference_Registration

alzheimer's association®

2013 Conference Sponsors

COLLEGE OF
Engineering,
Architecture and Technology

Stillwater
Medical Center

Human Development
and Family Science
COLLEGE OF
HUMAN SCIENCES

Linking Gerontology & Geriatrics:

Proceedings, materials and resources for health care and other professionals working with seniors.

View Videos from 2013: Health Promotion for Seniors, Grandparents and Grandchildren

Free sessions with registration at <http://osu-okgec.okstate.edu/conference-march-8>
Except if nursing CEUs are requested. ($25 per online session)

QUALITY CARE: FALLS, SAFETY & OVERALL WELL-BEING

Keynote Speaker: Laurence Rubenstein, MD, MPH, FACP

Fall Prevention in Older Adults: State of Science

March 8, 2013

Therapy Team Approach: Interventions and Strategies for Fall Prevention

Featuring: Sherrie Rose, PT

Informed Consent & the Geriatric Patients

Featuring: Joseph Leonard, MD

Medication Management Considerations for the Older Patients

Featuring: Mark Stratton, PharmD, BCPS, CGP, FASHP

Ethics & Mental Health Practices with Older Adults

Featuring: Sue Jacobs, PhD

Safety not Sorrow: Extension & Emergency Preparedness

Featuring: Gina Peek, PhD; Brenda Hill, PhD & Lani Vasconcellos, MS

Vitamin D: Bone & Beyond

Featuring: Barbara Stoecker, PhD, RD/LD

Our Purpose: Linking Gerontology and Geriatrics activities serve health care, social behavioral professionals, other professionals and family and community members working with older adults in rural Oklahoma.

Contact: Tammy Henderson, Ph.D. at linking.gero.geri@okstate.edu or 405-744-7511

For more information: <http://osu-okgec.okstate.edu>

Register at: http://humansciences.okstate.edu/2014_LGG_Conference_Registration

alzheimer's  association®

2013 Conference Sponsors

COLLEGE OF Engineering,
Architecture and Technology

Stillwater
Medical Center

