ABOUT THE COMPLEX

The Johnson Tennis Center has six lighted hard courts. It is also has a players lounge located adjacent to the courts. The Tennis Center is equipped with restrooms and several shaded areas to use for instruction. The camp will also use the indoor pool in Goodman Gym as well as classrooms to view tennis instruction tapes.

The emphasis is on fun and fundamentals.

ABOUT THE CAMP

Beginners will be introduced to the game with a "mini tennis" (small court) format and "lead-up" games that develop tennis skills. Campers will learn basic strokes, game scoring and etiquette. Experienced players will drill to refine strokes and game tactics. Tennis etiquette will be emphasized. Rainy day activities include videos and indoor tennis where space is available.

ABOUT THE CAMP DIRECTOR

Jeff Childress is a 1989 Pfeiffer University graduate and was a 4 year member of the Pfeiffer Tennis Program. He received his Master's of Education degree from East Carolina University where he served as Graduate Assistant for the ECU men and women's tennis teams. Childress was named the Director of Tennis and Head men's tennis coach at Catawba College. In his 7 years as the head coach, he guided the Catawba team to 2 NCAA II regional tournaments and had an overall record of 26-5 in his last season. In December 2003, Childress was awarded the USTA's Southern Section Community Service Award. He has won both the Stanly County and Rowan County singles tournaments.
