FUND for PUBLIC EDUCATION

Founded in 1980, the CLLA's Fund for Public Education supports the CLLA in developing educational programs presented at League meetings. In addition, it seeks to provide education to those interested in the credit, collections or bankruptcy fields through programs offered to the business community, the bar generally and if appropriate to the public at large. The Fund helps to maintain CLLA's leadership in education technology and was one of the early presenters of live, via satellite, video teleconferences. Most recently, the Fund supported the development of CLLA's Online Education. The Fund continually seeks input from those in the field regarding topics of interest and new trends in the law. Your support and ideas will insure that the CLLA's exceptional education programs continue far into the future. The Fund is a 501 (c)(3) educational corporation and your contribution is tax-deductible.
