Interim Employment Authorization Cards

Local Offices no longer accept nor adjudicate Form I-765 "Application for Employment Authorization." The Service Centers or the National Benefits Center are responsible for adjudicating any, pending Form I-765 and issuing interim or non-interim documentation.

If USCIS does not approve or deny your Form I-765, Employment Authorization Document (EAD) application within 90 days, or within 30 days for an asylum applicant, you may request an Interim EAD by submitting an interim request on Form I-765 to the Service Center where the pending Form I-765 was filed.

Case Status and Referral Followups

If you want to know the status of a case that is pending at this office, you should first call customer service at 1-800-375-5283. If your case is outside of our normal processing time, as shown on the uscis.gov web site, a customer service representative will ask USCIS to research your case, and we will send you a letter with further information.

If the customer service representative instructs you to visit our office, you must schedule an INFOPASS appointment, on our website, to visit this office in person.

Remember to bring the following items, to the office for your appointment:

-Any notices we have sent to you

-A valid photo identity document, such as a driver license, passport, employment authorization document, etc.

-A copy of the application or petition that you filed

-Proof of paying the fee such as a copy of a cancelled check (front and back) or money order that has been traced for payment, or a handwritten receipt from an Information Officer.

Adoption of Orphans

The processing and adjudication of Orphan Petitions and Advance Processing of Orphan Petitions is one of the top priorities for USCIS. The National Benefits Center (NBC) has an Orphan Team dedicated to processing orphan petitions/applications. If you have already filed a Form I-600, Petition to Classify Orphan as an Immediate Relative and/or a Form I-600A, Application for Advance Processing of Orphan Petition, and you have an emergency need to speak with the adoption officer at this office please send an email to NBC.adoptions@dhs.gov. The adoption officer will respond to your inquiry within 2 business days.

This email address is intended for use only by customers who have a pending or approved Form I-600 or I-600A. To receive a response to an inquiry about a Form I-600 or I-600A, the sender must be the petitioner or his/her legal representative (such as an attorney). If you are the legal representative, you must already have a Form G-28 on file. When sending an email to this address you must provide the following information:

- The petitioner's name,
- The petitioner's date of birth,
- The petitione'?'s country of birth,
- The receipt number of the Form I-600 or I-600A (if any),
- The alien registration number (A-Number) associated with the case (if any), and
- The name of the child to be adopted (if known)

General information about orphan adoptions is available under the Adoption section on the USCIS website or by calling USCIS Customer Service at 1-800-375-5283.
