

2015 FHSAAA Fred E. Rozelle

Sportsmanship Award

Official Nomination Form

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Your school/officials association may nominate one full member senior high school in each of the eight (8) different high school administrative classifications, as well as one member school in the middle school/junior high school division. Please complete a separate nomination form for each school nominated. A school cannot nominate itself. Be certain to complete the evaluation on page 2 of this form.
2. You are encouraged to meet collectively with the head coaches in all sports in which your school sponsors programs, or the contest officials within your association, to determine which school(s), if any, your school/officials association believes is worthy of this recognition. Rivalry should not be a factor in making this decision. Even the most bitter of rivals are capable of demonstrating exemplary sportsmanship when competing against each other. If an opponent is deserving, nominate the school, no matter how bitter a rivalry it may be.
3. Completion of page 3 will consist of a letter of nomination that should summarize why your school/officials association believes the school being nominated is worthy of being considered for this award by the selection committee.
4. Submit the nomination form(s) via the FHSAA's online system so that it is received no later than 5 p.m. Wednesday, March 25, 2015. Nominations received after this deadline will not be accepted.

2015 FHSA Fred E. Rozelle Sportsmanship Award
Official Nomination Form

Complete this evaluation form for the school that you are nominating for the 2015 FHSA Fred E. Rozelle Sportsmanship Award. If the school does not have cheerleaders, specify none and do not insert a rating number for that category. Rating system is "5" for the best score (superior) and "1" for the lowest score (poor). "N/A" indicates you did not witness the occurrence, or the occurrence was not applicable for purposes of this nomination. Check the box next to the score.
