PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Well the “regulated” hunting seasons in Texas are now over until September, when our state’s “religious holiday” – opening day of dove season – occurs. For those not wanting to wait around idly for that special event, there are all kinds of exotic critters, varmints and feral hogs to hunt and fresh & salt water fish to be caught.

Speaking of fish to be caught, are you aware of Texas Parks & Wildlife’s Winter Trout Stocking Program? Starting in December and running through February TPWD personnel will stock hundreds of thousands of rainbow trout in community lakes and ponds throughout the state. In the Metroplex area alone they will stock over 42,000 in 18 different lakes. So if you like trout fishing go to <http://tpwd.texas.gov> to find the lake closest to you.

February is one of the busiest months of the year for your club because, as I write this, it is only six weeks until our annual fund raising banquet on March 7th. There are many club members volunteering their time & talents in an effort to make this, our 36th banquet, a raging success. John Laverty has his committee toeing the line on getting quality items for our live and silent auctions, theme tables, wine pull and all of the other organizational details that must be addressed to create a great event. Your Executive Director, LeAnn AuBuchon, knows that for a successful event like this the “devil is in the details,” and she is doing a great job at making sure no stone goes unturned and that we volunteers are held accountable for what we said we would do! If you haven’t bought your ticket or table yet go the Annual Banquet section of club’s website at www.dwwcc.org and follow the link at the bottom of the page to the Woods and Waters Foundation logo. That is the ONLY way to buy your tickets! You can also register for the silent auction on this page and begin viewing and bidding on the items listed from your mobile device!

If you haven’t been to our banquet before (or if it has been a while since you have) I can tell you that it is a very fun and entertaining evening spent with fellow outdoors enthusiasts. There is a Silent Auction with about 125 high quality items, a Live Auction with around 30 hunting & fishing trips as well as high quality merchandise. There are also Raffle Tickets available that provide a chance to win several very nice guns and up to 10 theme tables, like fishing, deer, upland bird, dove, & a ladies table to name a few. There will be a Wine Pull which enables the chance to spend a little, and get a lot more value than you spent. Our “Yeti Wall” of the last two years enabled you to purchase a high quality cooler which might have had something else of value inside it. Look for the surprise replacement for that. Several of our hunting and fishing outfitter friends will be there with their booths to answer questions and to help you book a trip with them. For those who want to stay after the Live Auction is over, there will be live music & a dance floor! Oh, I almost forgot – there will be great food – and a bar too. That is truly a lot of bang for your buck and the proceeds are used to fund the charitable purposes of the Woods and Waters Foundation, which is primarily involved in introducing children of all ages to the hunting, fishing and other outdoor activities we enjoy so much.

Your Youth & Family Activities chair, Danny Souder, is doubling the number of youth activities we conduct this year, so raising more money than we have in the past is very important. Toward that end we have developed our very first corporate sponsorship program designed to raise even more money through the banquet. Look for the details elsewhere in this newsletter.

Don’t forget to reserve your seat for the February 12th membership meeting so you can meet and hear Leonel “Muy” Garza, founder of the Muy Grande Deer Contest.

There is no meeting in March because of the banquet and our April 9th speaker will be David Yeates, CEO of the Texas Wildlife Association.

Good hunting and good fishing to you all.

January 2015 Youth Doe Hunt

A note from one participant:

Hello Danny/Martin:
Just a quick note to express our gratitude to participate with the DWWC youth hunt this past week-end.

You guys were amazing hosts at an amazing ranch/facilities close to the DFW metroplex.

Personally, I loved the Christian atmosphere. I told my wife when I got home, over the entire weekend, I did not hear a single curse word--great culture for our sons to be part of.

Once again, thank you for allowing us to attend. Ryan & I both had a great time.

Terry & Ryan Nash

2015 Live Auction Items

The following is a partial list of live auction items that will be available at the 36th Annual Dinner and Benefit Auction. The silent auction will be different this year with fewer higher value items (items that were on the Big Board auction in previous years will be in a “premier silent auction” area this year.) The silent auction will open for mobile bidding a few days before the event. Be sure to register, and buy your tickets or table at <http://www.dwwcc.org/banquet.shtml>.
