Other information: This is a family event in a pack family camping setting. Packs and families need to provide all their own camping equipment - including tents, cooking equipment (propane fuel only), lanterns, and meals (excluding Saturday lunch). TENTS ONLY - NO CAMPERS.

Packs: Are you in need of tents? We have a limited amount of tents to lend - first come - first served. Email Scott Miller your needs at cubscoutscott@comcast.net.

Footwear: Proper, camp appropriate footwear - no open toed shoes, no flip flops, etc. for camp.

Swimwear: We will have pool and aquatic programs - bring proper swimwear and shower shoes.

Shower and restroom facilities will be available all weekend.

Medical forms: ALL campers MUST have a completed health form - Parts A & B (includes adults). ****

Assign one pack leader the responsibility of holding the health forms for the weekend.

Each family will receive an information packet upon check in - it will indicate your campsite.

Camp trading post will be open during the weekend. Hours will be posted.

If your scout plans to use the climbing wall, a consent agreement must accompany the Scout.

Parental Informed Consent Agreement for C.O.P.E. - under forms on Penn Dutch Council website

Questions: Contact Scott Miller by email cubscoutscott@comcast.net or by cell (717)639-4308 or by home phone (717) 270-5346.
