To assist us in processing your application and ensure you are admitted to the correct academic department, please list the courses that you would like to take at Purdue as well as some alternate courses in case your first choices are not available. For instructions on how to research course options and to access Purdue's schedule of classes, please visit www.studyabroad.purdue.edu/incoming/onlineRegistration.cfm. If courses for your term abroad are not available yet, please choose classes based upon past offerings.

The minimum course load for undergraduate students is 12 credits per semester (usually about 4 courses), although undergraduate students generally take anywhere from 12-18 credits per semester. Graduate students should register for 9 to 15 credits per semester. For students spending a year at Purdue, this registration form serves to enroll you in classes for your first semester only.

NOTE: Some 500- and all 600-level courses are graduate courses and are not available to students on undergraduate exchange programs. When prerequisites have been met they are open to graduate students.
