

Ptah Myers Foot Skills Soccer Camp Hosted by SCCSA

Ptah Myers Foot Skills Soccer Camp will include:

Instruction from current & retired professional soccer players and college coaches
Camper to coach ratio approximately 15:1
Age & ability matched groups/teams
US Soccer & NSCAA licensed coaches
Group instruction great for beginner or the advanced soccer player
Coaching for all positions played
Coach's demonstrations
Technical & tactical training
Guaranteed 1000 touches on the ball per day

Foot Skills Camp Daily Schedule

Warm-up technical training (every player with a ball at their feet)
Technical training emphasizing proper technique while doing ball work with speed & control
Progression with each technical session
Tactical progression 1v1, 2v2, 3v3, 4v4 attacking & defending
Introduction to specific tactical formations
3v3 tournaments
World cup tournaments focusing on positions within tactical formations

Curriculum

Expert instruction emphasizing the proper technique of individual skills and the development of fundamentals. Each coach will focus on getting campers multiple touches on the ball. Campers will learn proper techniques on various skills such as: dribbling, passing, shooting, receiving, heading, defending, shielding, crossing, etc. Within their topics, campers will progress from technical training to tactical training. Each camper will learn the details of the position they play. We want the campers to have fun; however, the main focus is teaching the individual skills and techniques needed to become better soccer players. Campers will be put in game situations via 3v3 small-sided games and in world cup tournaments.
