Who is Rick?

Rick Roeber, alias "Barefoot Rick," has been running barefoot since October 2003, looking for a way to ease knee pain when running. Since April 2004, Rick has run exclusively barefoot, logging thousands of miles annually. In addition, he has completed 53 barefoot marathons and two barefoot ultra marathons of over 40 miles.

Rick has a heart for the homeless, and for Kansas City Rescue Mission and the work it does in the community. He's running this 24-hour test of endurance to raise awareness of the 24 hours each day KCRM must be "at the ready" to meet the needs of our community's poor and homeless, and to give others an opportunity to give to this important effort.

Who is Kansas City Rescue Mission?

Founded in 1950, Kansas City Rescue Mission has been serving KC's hungry and homeless for 60 years. KCRM is committed to its purpose to offer "freedom from the past and hope for the future" as a continuing resource for food, shelter, addiction recovery, job and life-skills training, basic health care, and much more. This year alone, KCRM will serve more than 90,000 hot, nutritious meals and provide more than 38,000 nights of shelter.
