Dear sisters and brothers.

I am including an article this month on prayer. Prayer is the fertilizer that feeds us spiritually and helps our roots grow deeply in the faith.

The basic article was written by JoHanna Rearindon and edited with additions by yours truly. I hope you enjoy it and find it useful. I have used JoHanna's material on prayer in the past and have found it quite useful in teaching and in personal application.

Praying Together What does it mean to pray biblically?

By JoHannah Reardon edited by The Rev. Michael D.F. Sculley ESC/f

For years I attended a prayer group that included close friends. We prayed for one another, the church leadership, and for any needs we happened to know about. After one of these times, a friend said she was considering dropping out of the group because she felt overwhelmed by the prayer requests. It seemed to her as though everyone's problems were insurmountable, and although we'd been praying for the same things for months, it didn't seem as though anyone's life was getting any better.

The prayers in the Bible are powerful and life-changing, full of God's power and glory.

Consider Paul's prayer in Ephesians 1:16-19. In fact, read it aloud with feeling:

"I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers. I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better. I pray also that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints, and his incomparably great power for us who believe."

Wow! Such a prayer puts health problems, troubled marriages, unruly children, and rotten work conditions in perspective. But obviously, we shouldn't ignore our problems and pretend they don't exist. How can we transform them by putting them into the bigger context of what God wants to do in our lives?

Make Them God-Centered

When you pray, remember who you are talking to. You've been given the privilege of coming before the creator of the universe. This is the God who made everything that lives, and he has given you the honor of bringing requests before him. That's why so many teachers tell us to start our prayers with adoration. When we tell God how great, powerful, and magnificent he is, it reminds us that he truly is those things. It gives us a sense of awe and expectancy that something great could come out of this conversation we're having with the One who can do anything.

Paul spent more than half of his prayer in Ephesians 1, by extolling God's virtues.

When Paul wrote this book, he was in prison. He could have listed a litany of prayer requests that would have made ours pale in comparison, but instead he focused on who God is. Surely the power of that prayer carried him further than any listing of complaints. It also showed the Ephesians how to pray victoriously in the midst of whatever they were facing.

Make Prayers Praise-Filled

Paul started his prayer by saying, "I have not stopped giving thanks . . ." He'd learned that the key to praying is not to focus on a list of troubles, but to praise God for what he has done. How can we do that—how can we give thanks in everything, as Paul later admonished us to do in his letter to the Thessalonians?

We have to trust that God knows what he's doing. A person may not be able to say, "Thank you, God, for my fibromyalgia." But maybe, "I don't get why I have to have it God, but you do, so I'm going to trust you with it. I'd be delighted if you'd take it away, but if not, I trust you'll use it for good in my life."

You can be thankful for moody teens or unruly children because they are a gift from the Lord and he will equip you with wisdom to know how to help them. It may be a bumpy road, and they may have to go through some hard times before they learn their lessons, but trust that the Lord will give you wisdom as you praise him for them.

For a stressful job: Thank the Lord, for your job. After all He led you there, so pray, "I'm trusting that you want to use me with my co-workers, and that you'll equip me to do this job well. If you're leading me elsewhere, I trust that you'll make that clear too. Teach me what you want me to learn through some of the difficult times at my job."

Make Them Life-Changing

My friend was frustrated with our prayer time because it seemed nothing ever changed. Maybe that's because we weren't praying for the right change. I've noticed that the vast majority of our prayers are for God to change our circumstances. Maybe God doesn't want to change our circumstances. Maybe he wants to change us.

That doesn't mean he won't ever change our circumstances. I've seen God supply needs, open opportunities, and heal people in incredible ways. But I've also spent years praying for something that never changes. That should be my first clue that I may not be praying for the right thing.

Looking at the examples listed above again may help us think about this. If you have been praying for God to take away fibromyalgia and he hasn't done it, you should probably focus on how he wants to use it in your life. Maybe God wants you to start a support group for other fibromyalgia sufferers. Or possibly He wants you to express more compassion for others who are suffering by praying for them or sending money to a research organization that is looking for a cure. Perhaps He just wants to get your attention—and as C.S. Lewis said, pain is his megaphone.

We need to pray for children the way Paul prayed for the Ephesians—that God would give them the Spirit of wisdom and revelation so that they may know h i m b e t t e r .

We need to pray that children would know the hope to which God has called them, their glorious inheritance, and God's incomparably great power. As you pray for your children or for other peoples children, remember to pray these things for yourself, too, so that you will be able to model such a walk with God as an example to them.

Concerning your job. If you have a possibility of changing jobs, you need to pray for God's confirmation and wisdom about doing so. You need to get the advice of other godly people to see their perspectives. If you have done all that and feel that God wants you to stay in your job, you need to ask him what he wants to accomplish in and through you. Ask God to change your perspective and give you joy.

After all, if Paul could find joy while sitting in a prison cell, All of us can probably find joy in a job if we let God open our eyes to it.

Our group prayers changed after my friend complained. We realized that we were treating prayer as a complaint session, when in reality it's an incredible opportunity to gain the wisdom, direction, and power of the King of Kings who rules all time and places.

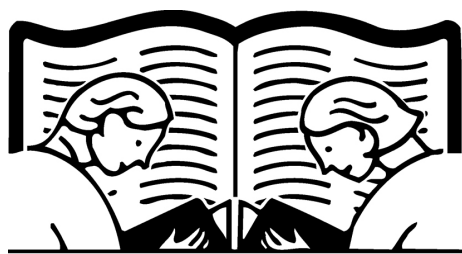

May God bless you dear sisters and brothers,
Pr. Michael

PRAYER PATH by Kim Wiest

This is a prayer for YOU who are reading this....

I am asking God, the glorious Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to give you spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you might grow in your knowledge of God. I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the wonderful future he has promised to those he called. I want you to realize what a rich and glorious inheritance he has given to his people. I pray that you will begin to understand the incredible greatness of his power for us who believe him.

Isn't this a beautiful prayer? The apostle Paul wrote this and it is found in Ephesians 1:17-19. I would appreciate being prayed for with this prayer, how about you? We could use it to pray for others too.

Here is another prayer by Paul found in Ephesians 3:17-19: "May your roots go down deep into the soil of God's marvelous love. And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love really is. May you experience the love of Christ, though it is so great you will never fully understand it."

Dietrich Bonhoeffer is quoted as saying, "If we wish to pray with confidence and gladness, then the words of Holy Scripture will have to be the solid base of our prayer. For here we know that Jesus Christ, the Word of God, teaches us to pray. The words which come from God become, then, the steps on which we find our way to God."

Let us be bold in our prayers, claiming God's Word and promises as our own!

Intercessory Prayers will have their first meeting on Oct. 12th at 4 p.m. in the Pastor's office. Please come!

PV Council met on Sept. 9th. Pastor Michael talked about the annual LCMC gathering in Minneapolis on October 3-6. His online classes start on Sept. 13th. He will have classes on Mondays and Thursdays at 5:30 pm. Color-coded laminated liturgy sheets were discussed, training for worship assistants, and the need for all church leadership to attend worship services regularly. Members are needed for the 2011 Benevolence committee and be prepared with a proposal at the budget meeting in December. Tim Salois reported that the sidewalk on the south side of the church and education building will be started soon. Susan Gustafson attended the meeting to report on the Flathead Lutheran Bible Camp's board meeting in June. Jerome Glimm volunteered to prepare and paint the metal portion of the sign out front of the church. New letters, similar to what we use, have been ordered. PV's 100th anniversary is coming up in 2014. People are needed to start interviewing and writing up history. There are a few beginning the process of interviewing now.

The next council meeting will be on Tuesday, October ____ at 7 p.m. in the Luther Room.

On Sept. 12th following the worship at PV there was a congregational meeting for the purpose of voting on the new constitution. 73 members signed in. There was some discussion following the motion to approve the new constitution. The ballots were passed out and the results were: 72 voted "yes" to approve the constitution, 2 voted "no"—motion passed.

Fund, and $54,406.79 in the Parsonage fund. There was $5,225 income for the anniversary with $7,961.24 worth of expenses. It was noted that there are still cookbooks and history books to sell. The goal was to break even and that is still probable. Dennis Fladstol reported that the celebration was a huge success. There were 145 attending on Saturday and 164 attending on Sunday. There will be a congregational meeting on November 14th, immediately following the worship service, to vote on the approval of the new constitution, with the intention that it will then be adopted at the annual meeting. The next meeting will be Tuesday, October 12th at 7:30 p.m.

- ☺ Three-year-old Seth had received a toy lawnmower for Christmas, but he never had the chance to use it until one sultry July day when his father went out to mow the lawn and Seth volunteered to "help." A few minutes later, however, Seth was back, dragging his toy lawnmower behind him. "I'm going to mow in here," he explained to his mom. "It's too hot outside!"
- ☺ One lab mouse to another: "I've trained that crazy human at last." "How have you done that?" "I don't know how, but every time I run through that maze and ring the bell, he gives me a piece of cheese."

God has given us a gift that we can't work for or buy.
Discover what this gift is by reading Ephesians 2:8-9, NIV.

Fit the words in bold into the word puzzle below. We've provided two letters for you.

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith — and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God — not by works, so that no one can boast."

A TASTE OF GRACE

Because Jesus died and rose for us, we have the free gifts of forgiveness and eternal life. That's the meaning of grace: "God's Riches At Christ's Expense."

Celebrate God's grace by "spelling it out" with this fun, nutritious recipe.

What you need:

- An adult to help
- 2 bowls
- Mixing spoon
- 1 Tablespoon yeast
- 1/2 cup warm water
- 1 teaspoon honey
- 1 1/3 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Cutting board
- Cookie sheet

What you do:

1. Preheat the oven to 325 degrees.
2. In a small bowl, stir the yeast with the water and honey. Let the mixture sit for five minutes.
3. In another bowl, stir the flour and salt together.
4. After five minutes, add the bubbly yeast mixture to the flour and salt mixture.
5. Stir everything together, first with a spoon and then with your hands. The dough is ready when it's still a little crumbly.
6. Put the dough on a cutting board with a little flour. Knead it into one big ball.
7. Divide the dough into 12 pieces, and roll each piece into a snake shape.
8. Form the letters G R A C E (twice). Then form the two extra pieces into any shape you choose.
9. Bake your letters and shapes on the cookie sheet for about 10 minutes. Let cool, and enjoy!
