

Wilder's Preparatory Academy Charter School

Reading Log- Grade 3

All WPACS third grade students are required to read 30 minutes per night. Daily responses must be 5-6 sentences written neatly in cursive using details, proper punctuation, spelling, and grammar. Reading Log are due each Monday morning with a parent signature. In order to receive credit, all of the Reading Log criteria must be met

Student's Name _____ Week of: _____

Teacher: Ms. Clemmons Room: 202

Monday	Title:		Author:
	Genre:	Start Page	End Page	Parent Signature
	Good readers stop and think about the story as they read, often thinking about how a character is feeling, what s/he's thinking, or why s/he's acting in a certain way. Think about how a character responded to an event or another character. Would you have responded in the same way or would you have responded differently?

Tuesday	Title:		Author:
	Genre:	Start Page	End Page	Parent Signature
	You have just read a chapter in your book. What are some suggestions you would give the author to change the ending of the chapter?

Wednesday	Title:		Author:
	Genre:	Start Page	End Page	Parent Signature
	Good readers stop and think about the story as they read, often thinking about how a character is feeling, what s/he's thinking, or why s/he's acting in a certain way. Think about how a character responded to an event or another character. Would you have responded in the same way or would you have responded differently? ----- ----- ----- ----- ----- ----- -----

Thursday	Title:		Author:
	Genre:	Start Page	End Page	Parent Signature
	You have just read a chapter in your book. What are some suggestions you would give the author to change the ending of the chapter? ----- ----- ----- ----- ----- ----- -----

Friday	Title:		Author:
	Genre:	Start Page	End Page	Parent Signature
	What was your favorite part of this chapter? Explain using details from the story ----- ----- ----- ----- ----- -----

