

GoI-UNDP Disaster Risk Reduction Programme (2009-2012)

Minutes of the Meeting

GO-NGO Coordination and Formation of Inter Agency Group (IAG)

July 13, 2011

Conference Hall, HP Govt. Secretariat, Shimla

INTRODUCTORY SESSION:

- Mr. D C Rana, State Project Officer, GoI-UNDP Disaster Risk Reduction Programme, welcomed the guests and participants and offered gratitude to them for attending the first meeting on GO-NGO coordination and formation of Inter Agency Group (IAG) in Himachal Pradesh. He clarified that the GO-NGO and IAG Coordination in the State would be established as per the DM Act, 2005 and the NDMA guidelines issued in this regard. But the core principle would be 'all inclusive' and those NGOs which don't fulfill the eligibility criteria of becoming member of IAG at State Level can be eligible at District level. Or since the IAG membership would be always open to those who fulfill the eligibility criteria the NGO would be welcome at the later stage also. Those NGOs which are not member of the IAG can work in the disaster management in many ways.
- The meeting started with a brief introduction of the participants representing various Government Organizations, Corporate Sector, National and International Non-Governmental Organizations gave a brief introduction.
- After the participants' introduction, Ms. Nandita Gupta, Special Secretary (Revenue) briefed the participants about the paradigm shift that has taken place in the disaster management scenario and emphasized the need and significance of collaborative actions by Governmental and Non-Governmental Organizations for an effective disaster management.
- Ms. Gupta apprised the participants about the legal and institutional framework on disaster management at national, state, district and local level. She stressed on the need of developing a comprehensive disaster management mechanism with disaster preparedness, prevention and risk reduction as key components.
- Ms. Gupta highlighted the vital role of NGOs in disaster management and stated that the NGOs can help in addressing the specific issues pertaining to the disaster management and simultaneously enhancing the outreach of the interventions of Government.
- After the inaugural note, Mr. D C Rana elaborated the agenda of the meeting and emphasized the need of forming an effective Inter Agency Group (IAG). Mr. Rana added that the need of the hour is to identify the credible NGOs working in the state, map out their resources, build their capacities for various aspects of Disaster Management.

- Mr. Rana elucidated the purpose of creating the IAG having a Core Group, a Coordinator and a host agency (NGO) for unified response strategy at the time of humanitarian crisis. He said that NGOs, CBOs and International Funding Agencies have specific responsibilities in mainstreaming emergency response into developmental interventions to create disaster-resilient society.

DISTRIBUTION OF I.E.C. MATERIAL:

After the Introductory Session, following I.E.C. items were provided to the participants-

- 1) Framework for involvement of Red Cross in Disaster Management
- 2) Earthquake Preparedness Guide
- 3) Earthquake Safety of Masonry Building in Zone-IV
- 4) Typical Design of Masonry Building for Zone III, IV & V

- Core beliefs of Sphere India: (i) All possible steps should be taken to alleviate human suffering arising out of calamity and conflict. (ii) Those affected by disaster, have a right to life with dignity and therefore a right to assistance.
- Significance of Inter Agency Group for greater coordination among agencies at the time of emergencies and subsequent phases of disaster cycle, decentralization of resources and proper allocation of responsibilities, and the expression of collective commitment to the quality and accountability.
- Role of IAGs in emergencies: Use of Common Assessment formats, need and damage assessment, Situation Reports, Collecting and sharing latest Information.

EXPERIENCE SHARING AND KEY OUTCOMES OF THE MEETING:

- Dr. Arun Chandan (Executive Director, MFH) shared the experiences of Mountain Forum Himalayas' (MFH's) work in disaster-hit areas of Kashmir, Uttarakhand and Leh. He stated that the role of IAG has been instrumental in providing, coordinating and managing the disaster response which ultimately helped in checking the mismanagement and underutilization of resources at the time of resources.
- Dr. Anandi Mehra (Senior Development Consultant) emphasized the need of learning from the experiences of Gujarat, where NGOs formed a Task Force to address different issues related to effective disaster management. She added that the member NGOs of this Task Force, on the basis of their respective strengths and available resources, allocated among themselves specific responsibilities which immensely helped in the proper coordination of response. She also shared a report titled as “Ray of Hope” which was prepared during the response initiatives to the Gujarat Earthquake.

- Ms. Nandita Gupta (Special Secretary, Revenue Department) elaborated the role of industries in mitigating and reducing the risk of industrial and chemical disasters. Ms. Gupta shared how the industrial units at Baddi & Barotiwala came forward to promote the awareness about disaster preparedness.
- Mr. Prabhat Kumar (District Coordinator, NYKS) underlined the need of enhancing the role of Youth Clubs and Mahila Mandals in order to strengthen the disaster response mechanism. He endorsed the role of young volunteers in providing quick response and Mr. Kumar also stressed on strong cooperation among the Governmental and Non-Governmental Organizations to ensure high standards in disaster response.
- Mr. D C Rana requested the NYKS to provide a Directory of district offices of NYKS and Youth Clubs in Himachal Pradesh. He also encouraged the NGOs to involve more youths and orient them over fundamental aspects of disaster response.
- Mr. Pradeep Kumar (Programme Coordinator, Save the Children) laid thrust on the need of reducing the risk of slow disasters like severe and prolong droughts. Mr. Kumar shared major experiences of ‘Save the Children’ in various phases of disaster response. He also briefed the participants about the Emergency Preparedness and Response Plan the organization developed for Delhi.
- Ms. Apoline B Tigga (CASA), on behalf of Mr. Jayant Kumar (Head of Programmes, CASA) said that CASA will be keen to take up the coordination of IAG. Ms. Apoline also stated that CASA have enlisted youth since search & rescue and health and can also contribute to strengthening DM at Panchayat level in Himachal Pradesh. She also briefed that CASA has been working since 1947 in the field of humanitarian response all over the country.
- Ms. Neeta Chauhan (Representative, CII) highlighted the noteworthy role of CII has played in the disaster response during Kashmir Earthquake and Leh Flash Flood. She mentioned that CII mobilizes resources and material support from various industries for quick and effective disaster response. Also, she added that a more comprehensive role of corporate sector in Disaster Management can be explored within the IAG framework for the State of HP too.

- Mr. Vikram Jeet (Programme Officer, HPVHA) said that the association has around 300 staff across the state and they can assist in the disaster response. Mr. Vikram suggested that all credible NGOs need to be involved from every part of the state to ensure rapid response in interior parts of Himachal Pradesh. He said that HPVHA can participate in the community mobilization and health-related aspects of disaster management.
- Dr. Sanjeev Sharma (WWF India, HP Office) emphasized the region-specific and type-specific classification of disasters in Himachal Pradesh. Dr. Sharma also stressed on reducing the risk of quick disasters like forest fires and flash floods.
- Mr. Bhim Singh (Mandi Saksharta evam Jan Vikas Samiti) said that when it comes to creating mass awareness about the disaster preparedness, it must be ensured that all material for Information, Education and Communication is developed in Hindi and vernacular languages only. Mr. Singh also added that their organization can play a crucial role in conducting disaster-related surveys in rural and remote areas of the state.
- Mr. Narender Paul (Sr. Programme Manager, CORD) stated that NGOs need regular updates on disaster management so that they can gradually enhance their capacities. Mr. Paul pointed that enhancing the level of community preparedness to minimize the risk of disasters is more important than responding to the disasters.
- Mr. Anuj Tomar (Department of Home Guard & Civil Defence) said that his department can provide training to NGOs on general aspects of search and rescue, especially in case of fires. He also said that the NGOs can collaborate with the department to add more value to the ongoing awareness generation programmes.
