- Application forms are available in large print.
- A travel document application instruction booklet is available in Braille.

GPersonal Information*Surname and given name(s) to appear in travel document

Write the name to appear in the travel document. This name is normally the same as the surname (last name) and given name(s) shown on your proof of immigration status. If you are requesting a travel document in a name that is different from the name that appears on the immigration status document, please note the following:

- For a married surname change, we recommend that you provide a marriage certificate (original or copy) to avoid possible delays.
- For any other legal name change, include one (1) of the following:
 - A legal change of name order;
 - An adoption order; or
 - Proof that the record of entry at Citizenship and Immigration Canada has been amended, i.e. the approved "Request to Amend the Record of Landing (IMM 1000), Confirmation of Permanent Residence (IMM 5292 or IMM5688) or Valid Temporary Resident Documents" (IMM 1436).

Surname (last name) at birth and former surname (last name)

Complete if different from the surname (last name) to appear in the travel document (for Passport Program, Citizenship and Immigration Canada information only—it will not appear in the travel document).

Date of birth

The date of birth will be inscribed in the travel document exactly as it appears on the proof of immigration status unless Citizenship and Immigration Canada records have been amended subsequent to your admission to Canada. In this case, the original approved "Request to Amend the Record of Landing (IMM 1000), Confirmation of Permanent Residence (IMM 5292 or IMM 5688) or Valid Temporary Resident Documents" (IMM 1436) is required. If your proof of immigration status does not show a complete date of birth, the specific year, month and day of your birth will be entered as shown on your supporting identification. Provide original or copies signed and dated by your guarantor of any supporting identification showing that date of birth.

Signature

You must sign your usual signature on all four (4) pages.

Inner Limits

(H)Declaration of Guarantor

A guarantor is a person other than yourself who confirms your identity. A family member or a person who resides at the same address as the applicant may be the guarantor provided that the individual meets the specified requirements.

The guarantor must:

- be a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident living in Canada;
- have known you personally for at least six (6) months. To know an applicant personally means that the guarantor is able to confirm aspects of the applicant's personal attributes;
- know you well enough to be confident that the statements you have made on the application form are true;
- be included in one (1) of the following groups:
 - Dentist, medical doctor or chiropractor
 - Judge, magistrate, police officer (municipal, provincial or RCMP)
 - Lawyer (member of a provincial bar association), or notary in Quebec
 - Mayor
 - Minister of religion authorized under provincial or territorial law to perform marriages
 - Notary public
 - Optometrist
 - Pharmacist
 - Postmaster
 - Principal of a primary or secondary school
 - Professional accountant (member of APA, CA, CGA, CMA, PA or RPA)
 - Professional engineer (P. Eng., Eng. in Quebec)
 - Senior administrator in a community college (including CEGEP)
 - Senior administrator or teacher in a university
 - Veterinarian

The above list is not a recognition or endorsement by Passport Program, Citizenship and Immigration Canada of professional status or superior qualifications.

- be accessible to Passport Program for verification.

The guarantor must perform free of charge the following three (3) tasks:

1. Complete and sign the Declaration of Guarantor (section 2) (ensure you have completed and signed all four (4) pages of the application before submitting it to your guarantor).
2. Write "I certify this to be a true likeness of (your name)" on the back of one (1) of your photos, and sign it.
3. If applicable, sign and date a copy of each document to support your identity (see section M).

Passport Program reserves the right to request a new guarantor.

The applicant must not assist the guarantor in performing his or her duties. If your guarantor requires assistance, contact Passport Program.

If you have not known an eligible guarantor for at least six (6) months, complete form PPTC 326, Statutory Declaration in Lieu of Guarantor for a Travel Document, available at any Passport Program regional office or contact Passport Program (see section F). The form must be completed at your expense before a person who is authorized by law to administer an oath or solemn affirmation. This may delay the processing time of the Canadian travel document.

(I)Proof of Immigration Status in Canada

Provide one (1) of the valid immigration status documents listed in section 3 on the application form (original only). It will be returned to you. Additional information may be requested to confirm your immigration status in Canada. If you require an immigration status document, contact Citizenship and Immigration Canada (see section F).

(J)Previous Canadian Travel Document

- Enclose any valid Canadian certificate of identity or Canadian refugee travel document issued in your name. If the Canadian certificate of identity or Canadian refugee travel document is valid for more than twelve (12) months from the date the application is submitted, provide a written explanation as to why you are applying at this time. Should Passport Program, Citizenship and Immigration Canada not be satisfied that you have a valid reason for applying early, your application for a new travel document may be refused.

- A person's name may appear in only one (1) valid Canadian certificate of identity or Canadian refugee travel document.

Note: If a valid Canadian certificate of identity or Canadian refugee travel document has been lost, stolen, damaged or is inaccessible, complete form PPTC 203, Declaration, available online at passportcanada.gc.ca. A Canadian certificate of identity or Canadian refugee travel document, once reported lost or stolen, is no longer valid. If found, it must not be used for travel and must be returned immediately to Passport Program or if abroad to the nearest Government of Canada office. There is an administrative fee for the replacement of a valid lost or stolen Canadian travel document (see section C).

(K)Citizenship and Travel Documentation

- Enclose any valid or expired foreign travel document or national passport issued to you or in which your name appears. If you are no longer in possession of this travel document or passport, write on the application form (see section 5) a description of the document, date and place of issue and explain its present whereabouts. If the document has been seized by Citizenship and Immigration Canada, provide the Notice of Seizure (IMM 5265).
- If you have visited another country since your entry to Canada, provide the exit and entry dates for each departure from Canada and explain the reason for each visit to another country since your arrival to Canada (if insufficient space, use section 8, Additional Information, on the application form).
- If you have been refused a national passport, enclose the letter of refusal. If the letter is not in either English or French, you must submit a translation of the document done by a certified translator.
- If you have been refused a national passport and have not received a letter of refusal from the authorities to whom you applied, enclose copies of any relevant letters you may have kept regarding your request for a passport (or a passport renewal). Write on the application form (see section 5) the results of your application including the date you were refused (if insufficient space, use section 8, Additional Information, on the application form).
- If you have applied for a national passport and have not received a written response, write in detail on the application form (see section 5) all the steps you have taken (by order of date) to obtain the passport and the results achieved. Enclose copies of any relevant letters you may have retained (if insufficient space, use section 8, Additional Information, on the application form).

L

Application for Canadian Citizenship

- If you have lost your Canadian citizenship receipt, write the date your application was made.
- If you were unsuccessful in your application for Canadian citizenship, enclose the letter of refusal. If you have lost the letter of refusal, write the date you applied and the reason for the refusal.

M

Documents to Support Identity

- Provide at least one (1) document to support your identity with the name, sex, date of birth, signature and photo to appear in the Canadian certificate of identity or Canadian refugee travel document. More than one document may be used to fulfill the requirements.
- All documents submitted to support your identity must be valid and must be issued by a federal or provincial/territorial authority.
- The document (or documents when combined) must include your name, sex, date of birth, signature and photo.
- Copies are acceptable provided your guarantor has signed and dated a copy of each document (both sides) confirming that the original document has been seen. If you are submitting original documents, they will be returned to you.
- If you are submitting copies and are using form PPTC 326, Statutory Declaration in Lieu of Guarantor for a Travel Document, the same official who signs the Declaration must also sign and date the copies of the original document (both sides) to indicate that the original document has been seen. If you have no documents to support your identity, contact Passport Program, Citizenship and Immigration Canada (see section F).

Note: Photo specifications for the travel document are different from those for a permanent resident card.

You must submit two (2) identical unaltered photos with each Canadian travel document application. Digital (electronic format) photos are unacceptable.

The photos must:

- be taken by a commercial photographer;
- be clear, sharp and in focus. Photos may be in colour or in black and white;
- have a neutral facial expression (eyes open and clearly visible, mouth closed, no smiling);
- have uniform lighting—no shadows, glare or flash reflections;
- be taken straight on with the face and shoulders centred and squared to the camera;
- be taken in front of a plain white or light-coloured background to clearly distinguish the person from the background. Photos must reflect or represent natural skin tones;
- be originals that have not been altered in any way or taken from an existing photo;
- reflect your current appearance (taken within the last six (6) months); and
- be professionally printed on plain, high-quality photographic paper (photos printed at home and photos printed on heavy-weight paper are not acceptable).

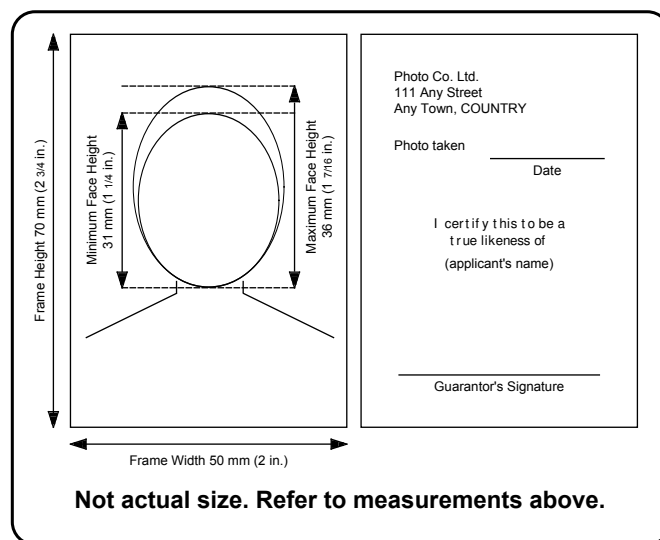

The following must appear on the back of one photo

- The name and complete address of the photo studio (not a P.O. Box) and the date the photo was taken. The photographer may use a stamp or handwrite the information (stick-on labels are not acceptable).
- The guarantor's signature.

Additional information

- Prescription glasses may be worn in photos as long as there is no glare and the eyes are clearly visible. The red-eye effect, tinted glasses and sunglasses make the photos unacceptable.
- Hats and head coverings must not be worn, except for religious beliefs or medical reasons. However, the head covering must not cast shadows on the face and the full face must be clearly visible.

Privacy Notice Statement

All personal information provided on this application form is collected by Passport Program, Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) for the purpose of determining entitlement of the applicant to a Canadian travel document and to provide information to the Consular Operations Bureau of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Canada in the event that the travel document holder requires assistance while travelling abroad. In the performance of those services, personal information is collected, used and disclosed under the authority of the Canadian Passport Order and in accordance with the Privacy Act and any other federal laws, regulations and policies applicable to the protection of personal information, as described in Personal Information Bank PPTC PPD 101 (Certificate of Identity and Refugee Travel Documents). In the context of the delivery of travel document services, CIC and other federal government institutions or Government of Canada offices abroad assisting in the delivery of travel document services may exchange personal information. In addition, in determining current and ongoing entitlement and to maintain the integrity of the Passport Program, all personal information collected is subject to verification and security queries to authenticate identity and citizenship, as well as to identify the existence of grounds for refusal to issue a travel document, the revocation of a currently valid travel document or the refusal of travel document services. In the same context, the guarantor's personal information is also subject to verification and security queries to determine whether the individual meets the guarantor requirements. Personal information may be disclosed to third party entities, such as law enforcement authorities and identity document issuing institutions, for verification and security queries required in the delivery of travel document services. Personal information may also be disclosed by third party entities to CIC or other federal government institutions or Government of Canada offices abroad for those same purposes. To strengthen the security of the Canadian travel document, CIC uses facial recognition technology. Also, an electronic chip is inserted into the booklet. The chip contains, in electronic format, the photo of the bearer and the personal information found on page 2 of the booklet. CIC may contact the applicant/passport holder to solicit feedback about passport services.
