Jillian Berlinski has a Masters of Education and is a certified elementary and special education teacher. She started signing with her daughters when they were born and learned first hand about the benefits of signing with hearing children. Motivated by her experience, Jillian was certified as an Advanced Signing Time Instructor by the Signing Time Academy and started her company, Hand in Hand Sign, to bring the benefits of sign language to all children. Jillian lives in Westford with her husband and two young daughters.
