9.	If you have an interest in the Young Muslim Women's Project what experience do you have working in Muslim communities and with youth?

10. And finally, working with trauma survivors can be stressful given the content. Common wisdom suggests that vicarious trauma is inevitable and as trauma counsellors we must develop the skills to manage the impact of the work to ourselves. Having said that trauma work is also tremendously rewarding. Please describe some self-care strategies you use when working in situations that are stressful and challenging.
