December 15th, 2006

New Jersey ASA, The Amateur Softball Association of America, The National Umpire Staff along with myself and all of our dedicated volunteers want to thank you for your inquiry and interest in the National Umpire School Program.

The NUS will be held on the campus of Roselle Catholic High School, 1 Raritan Road, Roselle NJ 07203. Located only minutes from the NJ Garden State Parkway and the NJ Turnpike, making access to the campus a breeze. We have arranged special hotel rates, minutes from the school at the Homeward Suites, Cranford NJ. Please contact them directly @ 908-709-1980, ask for Emily Kukwa and let her know you are with the NJ ASA National Umpire School.

The U-I-C staff instructors will be Norm Davis, Larry Montgomery and Bob Mauger. The final school schedule has not been set yet, but early registration at the Homeward Suites Hotel will be provided on Friday night, with the balance checking in early Saturday morning at Roselle Catholic High School.

A box lunch will be provided at the school on Saturday, and an Ice Breaker, will be held at the Homeward Suites Hotel in Cranford on Saturday evening, providing refreshments, finger foods and a relaxed environment to mix with your fellow students and staff.

Our friendly staff will be available to guide you in the right direction or provide information with regards to dining, shopping or other requirements.

The official NUS uniform will be gray pants and the NUS school shirt, please bring a complete uniform with you as well as your mask.

If you have any specific needs or require additional information please feel free to contact me. Attached is an application for the school, please fill out completely.

Welcome to the 2007 National Umpire School, March 24th & 25th, 2007. We look forward to meeting you and promise to provide a worthwhile experience. As we get closer I will continue to provide additional updated information.

Sincerely,

James D. Peters
