PRO MUSICA SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION ONLY

Amounts and Criteria for Maintaining Scholarships

Mozart Award: $5,000 annually/$20,000 over 4 years

Bach Award: $3,000 annually/$12,000 over 4 years

Beethoven Award: $2,000 annually/$8,000 over 4 years

Brahms Award: $1,000 annually/$4,000 over 4 years

Vocalists and instrumentalists (not keyboard students) must participate in a major ensemble as defined by the College. Ensemble auditions are held in the fall before classes begin. Keyboard scholars must accompany students for the first and second year of their scholarships. Mozart and Bach award recipients must take private lessons their first and second year at Augustana. After a student's first year at Augustana, he or she may be recommended for additional departmental endowed scholarships.

Pro Musica Audition Selection Recommendation

Instrumentalists perform one or two selections. Vocalists sing two selections of contrasting styles. At least one selection should be in a foreign language. Selections should demonstrate technique and musicality. The level should be suitable for solo contests. The time should be approximately 3-6 minutes.

Accompanist

The College will provide an accompanist for vocal auditions only. The piano score(s) must arrive at least two weeks prior to the audition date. Instrumental auditions may be performed without accompaniment. Please indicate on the audition form if you wish to have an accompanist provided (vocal auditions only).

DVD Submissions

If you are unable to audition in person, you may submit a DVD of your audition in primary and secondary mediums. Please submit your application form by February 1 and indicate that you will be sending a DVD. Submit your DVD by February 17, 2014.

PRO DRAMATIS SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION ONLY

Amounts and Criteria for Maintaining Scholarships

Scholars and majors form the core of the Augustana Theatre Company. Scholarships ranging up to $2,000 will be awarded. Theatre scholars must participate in company call one evening per week, assist in the scene and costume shops for four hours each week or hold specific leadership roles to fulfill their scholarship obligations. These roles may include but are not limited to the following: scenic, lighting, sound or costume designer; company manager, shop foreman, master electrician, front of house director.

Pro Dramatis Audition Selection or Portfolio Recommendation

Auditions should consist of two monologues of two minutes or less each of differing styles and tone. Portfolio should consist of photographs of completed designs.

DVD/CD Submissions

If you are unable to come to campus on the designated dates, you may submit a DVD of your audition. If you are submitting a CD of your portfolio, please include photos of finished designs for sets, lights and/or costumes in jpeg or tiff format and include an explanation of photos that include show name, design area and year in school that the design was done (e.g., 2012 as a junior). Please submit your application form by February 1 and indicate that you will be sending a DVD or CD. Submit your DVD or CD by February 17, 2014.

PRO ARTIS SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION ONLY

Amounts and Criteria for Maintaining Scholarships

Scholarships ranging up to $2000 will be awarded by the art department. Art scholars must assist in the Eide/Dalrymple Gallery for 40 hours each semester. Assigned duties may include assisting to hang and take down gallery exhibits, monitoring the gallery during open hours, assisting with gallery receptions, working on preservation, framing and cataloging of the permanent collection.

Pro Artis Portfolio Review Recommendations

Students should bring 5-10 works of art in any media representing at least two different media. Works do not need to be framed and are simpler to transport if they are not framed. Students should also bring a typed "Artist Statement" of one or two pages which will be read during an interview with faculty where the student's work will be presented. The artist statement will be submitted to art faculty after the interview. The statement can address some of the following:

- Description of some of the successes and struggles that you have experienced in creating either your artwork in general or a specific project.
- What inspires you as an artist?
- What does creating art mean to you?
- Do you have a favorite medium? If so, what is it about that medium that attracts you?

CD Submissions

Students who cannot come to campus to have their portfolio reviewed should submit a CD which includes digital pictures of 5-10 works of art (must be as a jpeg or tiff format), a list of the submitted artworks including title, dimensions, medium, year in school that the work was created (e.g., 2011 as a junior), class that the work was created for and an artist statement of one to two pages in length addressing the questions listed above. Please submit your application form by February 1 and indicate that you will be sending a CD. Submit the CD of your portfolio by February 17, 2014.
