CLEET Update

This spring has been busy at the K.O. Rayburn Training Center in Ada. A new Assistant Director was named by the CLEET Council in December and Charles (Chuck) Gerhart started work on February 1st. Chuck comes to Oklahoma after serving 24 years with the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office and three years with the Arroyo Grande Police Department in California. He held several administrative and investigative positions during his career and is a firearms instructor. Chuck will be involved in all aspects of the CLEET mission and he will have direct supervision over the Private Security Division, financial management, information technology and the physical plant operations.

February through May are the months for the Oklahoma Legislature to be in session. CLEET is tracking legislation that impacts training for peace officers and awaits the decision on distribution of funding for our budget. CLEET ran two bills this session, Senate Bills 1187 and 1188. Both have passed through the process and have been signed by Governor Fallin. SB 1187 is a records keeping bill. SB 1188 requires that reserve officers that have been inactive for over 5 years must take a legal refresher course as prescribed by CLEET. The materials will be developed and provided to agency administrators or training officers who will conduct the class.

CLEET also has requested changes to the Administrative Rules. The firearms block in the basic academy has limited opportunities for conducting remedial training. The new Rule addresses this issue. No changes were made to the course of fire or scoring. The change requested would allow a recruit who fails the firearms block to be given another opportunity to attend a second firearms block if the recruit's agency head or designate request this and it is approved by the CLEET Director. There would be no provision for any further attempts should the recruit fail a second time. The CLEET Rules have passed both the House and Senate.

CLEET will be in a partnership with the OACP, Oklahoma Sheriffs Association, Oklahoma Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association and University of Central Oklahoma in conducting an Oklahoma Training Summit on July 11th. This event is open to all officers in the state and will consist of four hours of round table and panel discussions. It will be similar in format to a town hall meeting and will provide an opportunity to discuss the training needs of officers in the state. The goal will be to provide direction to all of the listed organizations in developing future training and ways to implement them in the state. Further details will be forthcoming from all of the associations listed above.

The next graduation at CLEET will be class A1202 which is scheduled to graduate on June 13th at 2 PM. The graduating class sends out an invitation for you to attend and support them at this event. It is a great opportunity to fellowship with old friends from across our state, so please try and attend.

Thank you for your support of CLEET and everyone please BE SAFE!

Open Carry Legislation

The Open Carry legislation will go into effect on November 1st of this year. Until that date the procedures for persons who have a concealed carry permit will remain the same. CLEET will post updated information on the website and in our newsletter when we have the information available.

Law Enforcement Terrorism Certification Program

Training Program Offers Specialized Career Path for Law Enforcement

by: Julie Cavin, NCBRT

The Oklahoma Office of Homeland Security, Oklahoma Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training (CLEET) and the National Center for Biomedical Research and Training (NCBRT), Academy of Counter-Terrorism, a member of the National Domestic Preparedness Consortium (NDPC), recently developed the Law Enforcement Terrorism Certification Program (LETCP) to address the need to have a career path that state and local jurisdictions could utilize to identify appropriate training for their law enforcement professionals with respect to high-consequence events, either natural or man-made. "With consistent focus on enhancing our state and jurisdictional homeland security, this program provides an avenue to do so in a directed approach for the officer and agency," says Steve Williams, NCBRT Operations and Plans Associate Director. The LETCP will augment the current credentialing system already implemented in the state of Oklahoma. In addition to obtaining the Law Enforcement Terrorism Certification, the training hours can be transferred to CLEET's Advanced Law Enforcement Certification program and eventually college credits towards a degree. "This training will provide additional tools for law enforcement officers in their mission of providing a safer and more secure environment for the citizens of Oklahoma," says Steve Emmons, CLEET Director. "It is only through these training partnerships that officers advance their knowledge and expertise to fight the threat of high-consequence events."

About the Law Enforcement Terrorism Certification Program (LETCP)

The LETCP offers three levels of certification: basic, intermediate and advanced. Each level of certification includes training required for all participants and offers various tracks within the program to address specific needs of the patrol officer and special response units. The curriculum includes both web-based and instructor led training, which includes mobile and residential training. Each of the courses offered in the training program have been either DHS-certified or are federal or state courses approved through DHS. Each course is also offered at no cost to the participant. The entire certification program takes anywhere from one to six years to complete, depending upon the participant's current level of education. The state of Oklahoma is preparing a multi-year training schedule to meet the anticipated needs of the required training. Most of the training is mobile and will be brought to the state. The residential training programs, which are highly technical and require special facilities to conduct, will provide the training at their facilities. In these cases, the training provider will provide travel, lodging and per diem for those attending.

Private Security

In order to better serve our private security applicants we would like to inform you of some problems we have identified that could delay the processing or the mailing of your license.

- When we receive your application we check in the money order first. On some of the money orders we have received we have found that they have not been filled out except for the amount. When this is encountered we must send the money back to the sender for completion.
- The next problem we encounter is on current address for the applicants. Each month we send out reminders that your license is set to expire soon. Over a five day period in September we received back forty renewals, one application packet and one license. It is important to remember that it is your responsibility to contact us within ten days of a new address as it is a requirement under OAC 390:35-5-13.
- The last item is not signing the application where needed and having the documents notarized.

The testing dates for Private Security are below. All of these tests will be held at CLEET. Classroom will be announced on the testing day.

June 04, July 09, August 06, September 03, October 08, November 05, December 03.

The Private Security Industry of Oklahoma is represented by the Private Security Advisory Committee. The members are: Chairman - James Carroll (OPIA), Vice Chairman - William J. Price (N.W.), Wayne Pauley (N.E.), Louis A. Maltos (S.E.), Alan Grayson (S.W.), Bill L. Howard (Member-At-Large), Rob Vincent (ASIS).

ALERRT

The Homeland Security grant directing CLEET to provide active shooter training is progressing better than we had expected. There are classes being held across the state and the officers that have attended are expressing their support for the program. We have classes being scheduled two to three months in advance and they will be available for registration on the CLEET website. Three hundred officers have been trained and many more are signed up for future classes. The classes are two day sessions with 16 hours of CLEET continuing education credit.

Below is list of upcoming classes. You can register for these on the CLEET website.

ALERRT

May 25 - 26 — Weatherford — Southwest OK State University

June 01 - 02 — Owasso.

July 07 - 08 — Stillwater — Stillwater Police Department

July 21 - 22 — Guymon — District Attorney One Task Force Office

July 27 - 28 — Sulphur — Sulphur High School

August 01 - 02 — Weatherford — Southwest OK State University

An additional $60, 000 has been added to the Active Shooter grant. Homeland Security provided this additional funding to CLEET to accelerate the opportunities for campus officers to be trained. We are also planning to hold another Train-the-Trainer in the late summer or early fall. The goal of the course is to get more campus officers through the Train-the-Trainer, so they will be able to teach ALERRT End User courses.

Practical Exercises

Last year CLEET added practical exercise training during the final week of basic academy training. Cadets participate in several different scenarios and have commented that the training really helps prepare them for the street. This process requires a number of people to work as evaluators and actors. We would appreciate any help that could be provided by your sending either commissioned or non-commissioned personnel to assist us with this training. A person does not have to be BID trained and can receive continuing education credit for attending and assisting. Please contact Shannon Butler or Tracy Shivers at (405) 239-5100 if you would like to receive dates and times to help.
