Parental Permission to View Commercially Produced Films/Videos

Students not returning this signed form by the required date will be excluded from viewing the film/video. An alternative assignment will be given.

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Our class will be viewing the following commercially-produced films. (Some will be shown only in clip form and some may not be shown due to time-constraints)

► Please initial any movie you DO NOT want your child to see. Thank you.

_____ Frost-Nixon Rated R for language. Depicts Richard Nixon's interviews with the British journalist David Frost three years after Nixon resigned.

_____ Live From Baghdad HBO movie. Not rated but would probably carry an R rating for language. Covers CNN's reporting in Baghdad prior to and during the beginning of the first Gulf War in 1991.

_____ Charlie Wilson's War Rated R for language, brief nudity, and drug use. The film covers American response to the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in 1979. Congressman Charlie Wilson successfully pushed to have the CIA provided weapons and training to the Afghan people as they tried to fight off the Soviet Invaders. This movie fairly accurately depicts actual events.

_____ Recount HBO movie. Not rated but would probably carry an R rating for language. Depicts the confusion and politics surrounding the 2000 election between George W. Bush and Al Gore.

Please sign and return this form by Friday, February 27th if you permit your child to view these films (and/or clips).
