JESSE JOYCE, Class of 1996

Stand-up comedian Jesse Joyce (www.jessejoyce.com), home from New York City for the holidays, has opened for Jimmy Fallon (weekend update - Saturday Night Live), Tracey Morgan, George Lopez, Brett Butler (Grace Under Fire), Frank Caliendo (Mad TV), Dom Irrera (100 Greatest Comedians), Mark Curry (Hangin' with Mr. Cooper) and the band Mercury. He has performed throughout the world in famous comedy clubs, such as: Gotham Comedy Club (New York, NY), Carolines (New York, NY), The Laugh Factory (New York, NY),

Catch a Rising Star (Princeton, NJ), The D.C. Improv (Washington, D.C.), The Hollywood Improv (Los Angeles, CA), The Funnybone (Pittsburgh, PA), The Comedy Nest (Montreal, Canada), The International Café (Dublin, Ireland), Mulligan's Pub (Geneva, Switzerland) and many others. His television appearances include Entertainment Tonight and Lifetime. He is also a regular on satellite radio.

TIM DIMOND, Class of 2004

Tim Dimond was recently crowned Mr. Fraternity at Carnegie Mellon University. He competed in the following competitions to win the honor: beachwear, togawear and a talent contest, in which he performed his self-written "Clorox Bleach Medley," an upbeat, spoken-word style compilation of several well-known rap songs such as Ludacris' "What's Your Fantasy," 50 Cent's "In Da Club," and Sir Mix-a-Lot's "Baby Got Back."
