*For volunteers providing specialized skills for which they would have otherwise have been paid, value their time based on the salary or fee charged for such services. This hourly rate must be corroborated through independent documentation. Such documentation could include a copy of the volunteer's current payroll information or pay stub, fee schedules, salary studies for the service being offered, etc. The documentation must be more than just a statement by the volunteer.

For volunteers providing services that do not require specialized skills, use the volunteer rate provided by the Independent Sector or more specific comparable wage data provided by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics or other independent sources.

Please briefly describe the volunteer services donated to the organization for the current month.
