Summary

Legislation effective on January 1, 2012 will change the maximum dollar-value limits on two summary procedures for the transfer of a decedent's property, alternatives to full decedent estate administration. The Probate and Mental Health Advisory Committee has proposed the revision of three Judicial Council forms used in these procedures to reflect the changes made by the legislation, and also to make other improvements in the forms. The Judicial Council will consider this proposal at its meeting of December 13, 2011, and is expected to adopt it effective on January 1, 2012, but public comments concerning the revised forms are requested even after the effective date of the revisions.

Discussion

Form DE-305

The Affidavit re Real Property of Small Value (form DE-305) must be used to transfer real property of a decedent under the summary procedure authorized by Probate Code section 13200.<sup>1</sup> The form, an affidavit to be signed by all persons claiming an interest in the property under decedent's will or by intestate succession, must be filed with the superior court in the county where the decedent was domiciled at death or, if he or she was not then domiciled in

California, in the county where the real property is located. After filing, a certified copy of the affidavit is recorded to complete the transfer; no court hearing or court order is involved.

Until January 1, 2012, this procedure is available to transfer a decedent's interest in particular real property if the value of all of decedent's real property in this state (with certain exceptions<sup>2</sup>) does not exceed $20,000. This maximum value limitation is prominently displayed in the name caption of the form and is repeated in the body of the form, in item 8 on page 1.

Legislation signed by the Governor on July 25, 2011, effective January 1, 2012, will increase the maximum dollar value limit of section 13200 from $20,000 to $50,000.<sup>3</sup> Form DE-305 must be revised to reflect the new limit. The title of the form and item 8 would be modified to show that limit.

The advisory committee proposes the following additional changes in the form:

1. Item 5a would be modified by adding a selection option for placing the legal description in the form rather than in an Attachment 5a. The omission of this option appears to have been inadvertent in the existing form, as space is there provided for stating the legal description in the form.
2. The title to be placed on Attachment 5a would be modified by adding "Legal Description" to the designation of the attachment.
3. In item 7, additional space would be provided for listing the name and address of the decedent's estate guardian or conservator (as required by § 13200(a)(4)) and the footnote identified with an asterisk advising of the duty to mail or serve copies on those fiduciaries would be moved up from the bottom of the page, increased in font size, italicized, and placed in parentheses to match other advice given in the form.

The existing form says that the affiant must "have a copy of the affidavit personally served or mailed," implying that the affiant must have someone else do the service or mailing, as in a regular civil action in which the affiant is a party. This advice would be changed to "You must mail (or serve, per Prob. Code, § 1216)" because section 13200(f) expressly provides that "the affiant shall mail" the affidavit. (§ 1216 permits personal service where service by mail is specified in the Probate Code.)

4. One of the two notary acknowledgements on page 2 would be eliminated to create additional space for items 8, 9, and 10, now placed at the bottom of page 1 of the form. Items 9 and 10 would be moved to the top of page 2 and all three items revised to fully

<sup>2</sup> The exceptions are specified in section 13050, incorporated by section 13200(a)(5). In this context, the exceptions are real property interests (1) held by a decedent as a joint tenant or as a life estate or other interest terminable at death; (2) passing to the decedent's surviving spouse (or registered domestic partner under Fam. Code, § 297.5) under section 13500; or (3) held by the decedent in a revocable trust.

<sup>3</sup> Assem. Bill 1305, enacted as Stats. 2011, ch. 117, is available online at www.leginfo.ca.gov/pub/11-12/bill/asm/ab\_1301-1350/ab\_1305\_bill\_20110725\_chaptered.html. Section 13200 was amended by section 9 of the bill.

occupy the space available in the form across the page. The parenthetical in item 8 containing references to some kinds of real property interests that are excluded from the $50,000 maximum limit of property value under Probate Code section 13050 would be expanded to include life estates or other property interests terminable upon decedent's death, and property in a trust revocable by the decedent.

5. Item 9 would be revised to read in full:

An Inventory and Appraisal of all of decedent's interests in real property in California is attached. The appraisal was made by a probate referee appointed for the county in which the property is located. (You must prepare the Inventory on Judicial Council forms DE-160 and DE-161. You may select any probate referee appointed for the county for the appraisal. The California State Controller's Office has a list of all probate referees, shown by county on its website, and each court has a list of probate referees appointed for its county. Check with the probate referee you select or consult an attorney for help in preparing the Inventory.)

The inventory forms, DE-160, the inventory cover sheet, and DE-161, the asset schedule, are mandatory forms; they must be used for all probate-related inventories filed with the court. The existing form refers only to the cover sheet and suggests that use of the Judicial Council inventory forms is optional. The existing form also does not advise potential petitioners, many of whom are self-represented, that they must prepare the inventory for the probate referee's use in making his or her appraisal of the property, and that a petitioner may select any of the referees appointed for the county where the real property is located.<sup>4</sup> The revised instruction would clarify those issues and also advise petitioners where they can find information about probate referees and assistance in the preparation of an inventory.

6. The dollar-value limitation would be added to the footer at the bottom of both pages of the form, to make the full name of the form consistent with the name shown in the title caption box.

Forms DE-310 and DE-315

The Petition to Determine Succession to Real Property (form DE-310) and the Order Determining Succession to Real Property (form DE-315) are, respectively, the petition and order for the summary procedure authorized by sections 13151–13154. These sections authorize the transfer of a decedent's real (and, if requested, personal) property without a full estate administration if the total value of the decedent's property in California does not exceed $100,000.<sup>5</sup> Sections 6–8 of Assembly Bill 1305 will increase this maximum limit to $150,000. The forms must be revised to refer to the new upper limit in the title and item 8 of form DE-310, and in the title and item 6 of form DE-315.

<sup>5</sup> Not including the value of property described in section 13050, including in this instance the personal as well as the real property interests listed in that section. See section 13151.

The following additional changes are proposed for form DE-310:

1. The case number, hearing date and time, and department caption boxes would be moved up to align with the bottom of the name caption box. This change would permit additional space for listing petitioners in item 1.
2. The place of death, item 2b, would be expanded to include the country of death (if not the United States).
3. Additional space would be provided for identifying a foreign estate administration for decedent in item 7b.
4. As noted above in connection with form DE-305, the partial list of types of property in item 8 that are excluded from the $150,000 maximum value limitation of this remedy would be augmented by adding property held in a revocable trust by decedent and property in which decedent had a life estate or other interest terminable at death, per section 13050.
5. The instruction at the end of item 8, to attach an Inventory and Appraisal as Attachment 8, would be modified to advise that the petitioner must prepare it, must use both forms DE-160 and DE-161, and that a probate referee appointed for the county must appraise all non-cash assets. (See §§ 8901–8902, 13152(b).)
6. Item 10 would be modified by adding an initial checkbox, highlighting that the item does not apply to all petitioners and, when selected, that it does apply in the particular case; and by adding the phrase “Decedent is survived by . . .” once at the beginning of the item rather than repeating the phrase for each subpart, to parallel the structure of item 9.
7. A checkbox would be added following the last signature line for petitioners on page 2, indicating that there are signatures of additional petitioners attached, similar to the provision for additional declarants in form DE-305.

All petitioners named in item 1 must sign and all persons with interests in the property that are not in conflict would ordinarily join as petitioners; a fairly large number of them may sometimes be involved.

8. The dollar-value limitation would be added to the footer at the bottom of the form, to be consistent with the full name of the form in the title caption box and the name of the form as shown on the judicial branch public website.

The following additional changes are proposed for form DE-315:

1. The case caption box would be narrowed (and the “notch” for the recorder’s space removed) to provide more space in the attorney caption box for the attorney’s or petitioner’s address and to bring the form designator at the top of the page within the margin of the page.

2. The date, time, and place of the hearing would be combined in the first line of item 1 to permit a full line for the judicial officer's name.
3. Item 3b would be changed to refer to a nonresident decedent who owned property in the county rather than one who "left an estate" in the county.
4. Item 9a would be changed to add a selection box for placing the property description in the form instead of in the referenced attachment. As in the case of a similar item in form DE-305, this omission in the existing form appears inadvertent.
5. All "Other Orders" in item 10 would be removed to an attachment. The single line available for other orders in the existing form is insufficient for any practical use.
6. Item 11, the number of additional pages attached, would be moved above the judicial officer's signature so that the signature is the last thing on the page.
7. The dollar-value limitation would be added to the footer at the bottom of the form, to be consistent with the full name of the form in the title caption box.

Requests for Comments

The changes in the forms required by the enactment of AB 1305 are mandatory; references to the new dollar-amount limitations in these forms must be made. However, comments are requested concerning the additional proposed changes listed above, and concerning any other recommendations for changes in the forms.
