*I had many dreams growing up.
One week I wanted to be a doctor,
another week, a politician,
then another – an advertising executive.
I had countless dreams.
Why?
Because TLC instilled in me
that there were no limits.*

OUR MISSION

The Learning Center for the Deaf's mission is to ensure that deaf and hard-of-hearing students achieve their full potential in an educational environment where language and communication are keys to building competence, character and community.

OUR PROFILE

Founded in 1970 and headquartered on a 14-acre campus in Framingham, Massachusetts, The Learning Center for the Deaf (TLC) provides comprehensive education and support services to over 1,500 children and adults annually from 87 communities throughout Massachusetts and 12 additional states. TLC is the largest provider of educational services for deaf preschool and school-aged children in New England and is the center of Deaf Community activities for the greater Massachusetts Deaf and hard-of-hearing community. TLC is a pioneer in bilingual-bicultural deaf education.

GOLF BENEFIT OUTING HIGHLIGHTS

Last year over 100 golfers joined us to raise over $50,000 for TLC.

Congratulations to Jeff Swartz and the team from Morgan Stanley Wealth Management for taking home the trophy last year!!

A special THANK YOU to all those who sponsored last year, especially:

Avnet, Inc.
Benemax
CCX Corporation
Ellingwood Construction
The Grainger Family
Law Offices of Nicholas Del Pizzo
Telamon Insurance and Financial Network
Judith Vreeland

All proceeds from the Golf Outing benefit TLC and help deaf and hard-of-hearing children thrive.
