CHALLENGE YOUR MIND

The World Affairs Council of Charlotte (WACC) celebrates 14 years of bringing WorldQuest to the Charlotte community.

This year the WACC marks 28 years of being a leader in international education in the Queen City by hosting this program jointly with Academic WorldQuest, our high school version of WQ.

Since it was created by our Council, WorldQuest has grown into a national knowledge competition played by many other Councils around the country. This program is part of our continued commitment to education and promotion of international understanding in the Charlotte area. The Council would like to invite you to participate in a fast-paced, fun, and challenging competition set to test your knowledge of international affairs.

EXPLORE THE WORLD

WorldQuest / Academic WorldQuest 2010 will include the following categories:

1. Geography of the African Continent
2. Flags of the World
3. Global Health
4. Current Global Events
5. Spotlight on India
6. Matching (Global Faces/Locations)
7. Global Potpourri (sports, pop-culture, holidays, landmarks, etc.)
8. Great Decisions 2010 (*ONLY FOR ACADEMIC WORLDQUEST PARTICIPANTS)

NOTE: WorldQuest 2010 participants will compete in 7-rounds while Academic WorldQuest 2010 participants will compete in 8-rounds (includes Great Decisions 2010)

PROMOTE INTERNATIONAL UNDERSTANDING

Consider creating a group of like-minded individuals interested in international affairs. Individuals, businesses, corporations, organizations (for profit and non-profit) and schools can create teams.

If you're an individual interested in participating in WorldQuest 2010 but don't have a team, we will be glad to assign you to a team.
