Instructions for Financial Affidavit & Form

The Financial Affidavit is a sworn statement about the financial situation of the party completing the form. It is meant to give the judge and the parties accurate information about the property and debts involved in the divorce. The values used should be as of the day the party completes the Financial Affidavit.

Both parties need to complete a separate Financial Affidavit Form and submit the same to the Court.

- Complete this form in black or blue ink only!
- Complete the caption (the top portion of the form). NOTE: The caption is the top portion of each form. You will need to know the name of your county, judicial circuit (ask the Clerk if you do not know), name of plaintiff, name of defendant and case filing number (ask the Clerk if you do not know). The caption will be the same on every form you fill out.
- Fill in the personal information in paragraphs (1)-(25). Use the information from your last two tax returns and your most current pay check stub, if you have them, to help you. If you do not know an answer then place a question mark ("?") in the blank. If you know for certain that you don't have or receive the item listed then enter a zero (0).
- Fill in the blanks for sections I, II, and III. Values should be an actual amount (if known) or an estimate of what the property is worth. If you do not have or receive the item listed, enter a zero (0).
- You must sign and date the Affidavit in the presence of a notary public or clerk of court. Make sure to bring photo identification to show the notary public or clerk of court. A notary public can usually be found at the bank and sometimes at the courthouse.

WARNING: By signing your name, you are telling the court that you are telling the truth and that you have a good faith reason for your requests. If you are not telling the truth, if you are misleading the court, or if you are serving or filing this document for an improper purpose, the court could find you in contempt or you could be charged with a crime for not telling the truth.
