10:15am – 11:45am	Breakout Session: Connecting Communities of Care Local, regional, and state based Health Information Exchanges (HIEs) are connecting primary care providers, hospitals, specialists, pharmacies, radiology centers, etc. across the country. They provide a vehicle that allows healthcare professionals and patients to access and securely share personal health information electronically. Learn lessons and best practices from HCCNs and PCAs who are assisting in getting centers connected to their local communities of care.	Cortez A
10:15am – 11:45am	Breakout Session: Unlock Your Data's Potential So you garnered support from members, invested in a data infrastructure and capacity, augmented staff, and are now aggregating data from multiple centers and sites. Now what? Learn from other HCCNs and PCAs on specific examples, best practices, and innovative ways you can unlock the power of your data to provide greater value to the members you serve.	Cortez D
10:15am – 11:45am	Breakout Session: Using Business Intelligence For Continuous Improvement High functioning data aggregation and analytical systems are being leveraged to aggregate and analyze clinical, financial, and administrative data. From comparative, effectiveness research, feedback reports, benchmarking across multiple networks, integrating total cost of care data to clinical decision support, learn how to take your analytics to the next level.	Cortez C

Tuesday, November 18, 2014, continued

12:00pm – 1:30pm	Lunch, Fiumelli Award Presentation	Stemmons
1:45pm – 2:45pm	General Session: Transformation: Raising ALL Ships	Coronado
3:00pm – 4:30pm	Breakout Session: Horizontal Care Networks	Cortez A

The last twelve months have seen phenomenal growth in the development of Health Center led Independent Practice Associations, Accountable Care Organizations and Managed Services Organizations. This session will focus on the latest developments, best practice models and new trends in the health care delivery marketplace that can be adapted to your needs.

3:00pm – 4:30pm	Breakout Session: Failure to Thrive: Struggling Health Centers	Cortez D

The tremendous growth of the Health Center program has led to new heights. But for some Health Centers, a lack of strong strategic and business plans are leading toward an unknown future which may include mergers with other Health Centers or even closures. This session will focus on how PCAs and HCCNs can come work together to assure the best outcome for the community served.

3:00pm – 4:30pm	Breakout Session: Dangerous Liaisons	Cortez C

As Health Centers enter the new world of health care delivery, relationships must be developed with other providers of care. With these new relationships comes new challenges and unforeseen consequences which some Health Centers are not adequately prepared. This session will spotlight what is happening in the field today and how to work with your Health Centers to assure the relationships being developed are strong and produce win-win results for all parties.

6:30pm – 8:30pm	Reception
