MISSIONS ASSISTANCE COVENANT FOR NORTHWEST BAPTIST CONVENTION AND CANADIAN NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION

PERSONAL EVANGELISM

All pastoral staff consistently SHARES and trains/leads their congregation to SHARE their faith verbally giving people an opportunity to respond as a part of an effort to make and grow disciples.

PERSONAL STEWARDSHIP

All staff, including the lead planter/senior pastor, of the church leads by example through consistently giving a minimum of a TITHE of their gross salary and housing to the local church plant.

MISSION GIVING

Give a MINIMUM OF 10% of your local congregation's undesignated gifts to Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) or CNBC mission causes on a MONTHLY BASIS, including a minimum of 6% to the Cooperative Program. The remaining 4% may be given to other SBC mission causes, including annual NW missions offering (SYLVIA WILSON) or the annual CCSB Missions Offering (Harvest); North American missions offering (ANNIE ARMSTRONG); International missions offering (LOTTIE MOON); and SBC or CNBC church plants.

COOPERATION

The congregation is in FRIENDLY COOPERATION with its association, state convention, and national conventions,. Participation in annual association and convention gatherings is also expected.

INVITATION

The congregation insures that those individuals participating in worship/celebration services are presented with a clear opportunity to RESPOND to the gospel through some means.

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP

The MEMBERSHIP of congregation is comprised of baptized (immersed) believers who have professed personal faith in Jesus Christ and identify themselves as members of the congregation.

DOCTRINE

The congregation is committed to the BASIC BIBLICAL DOCTRINES as expressed in "The Baptist Faith and Message" statement.

GOVERNMENT

The congregation exercises ultimate governance through the MEMBERS OF THE CONGREGATION. If a church is elder-led, the congregation has a determining voice as to who serves as elders. In the formative years of a church plant, leadership by a board comprised of the lead planter and board members from outside the congregation, is acceptable.

BAPTIST IDENTITY

The congregation demonstrates clear denominational IDENTITY. If "Baptist" is not included in the church name, there must be a stated affiliation with the NWBC, SBC, Great Commission Baptists* (GCB), CNBC, and/or the local Baptist association. The church plant's website should clearly identify its affiliation with the SBC, GCB, or CNBC.

REPRODUCTION

The congregation is working toward the goal of reproducing through the PLANTING of other congregations within five (5) years of starting missions assistance.

ENCOURAGEMENT

The lead planter/senior pastor participates regularly in a COACHING and/or a PLANTER/PASTOR NETWORK for the purpose of encouragement, prayer, accountability, partnership, and development of themselves and other leaders. The planter/pastor's spouse is encouraged to do the same, when available. The NWBC pastor is also required to attend the NWBC Annual Church Planting Conference.

COMMUNICATION

The lead planter/senior pastor COMMUNICATES through timely completion of monthly reports. The congregation receiving missions assistance completes the Annual Church Profile in a timely manner, once they are eligible to do so.

I have fully read and confirm that I am committed to fulfilling this covenant and leading my congregation to do so, as well.

Great Commission Baptists is the alternate name adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention*

I have read and will comply with this covenant. ☐ Yes
