

Study Abroad!

Take Glendale Community College and Maricopa Community Colleges Courses that count towards your degree.

Scholarships are available.

Glendale Community College is offering scholarships of $500 each to qualified students who are participating in a Maricopa Colleges Study Abroad Program. In order to qualify for the awards, the student must meet the following conditions:

1. Be enrolled in Glendale Community College during the Spring 2015 semester as an Arizona resident.
2. Have earned a GPA at Glendale Community College of at least 2.5 with at least 10 credit hours. The applicant must provide a recent transcript from the college. Unofficial transcripts are acceptable.
3. Plan to take the Maricopa courses for a grade.
4. Write a 500 word (two page) essay explaining what he or she hopes to gain by participating in the MCCC Summer Program.
5. Obtain a letter of recommendation from one Glendale Community College faculty member.

The essay, transcript and the application form (below) must be turned in to the International Education Office in B-204 by April 1, 2015 in order to guarantee consideration for this award.
