Why Treaties Matter Exhibit Opens at Northern Lights Casino

A traveling exhibit that chronicles treaties of the 19th century between American Indian Tribes and the Federal Government of the United States is now on display at the Northern Lights Casino in Walker, MN. The exhibit shows video of elders and academics from Indian country speaking to issues such as legal rights, environmental rights to hunt and gather, and land issues that relate to the treaties of this era. The exhibit offers a lot of information that was created long ago and is still in action today.

The exhibit is a series of large poster-boards that have detailed information about the treaty era. There is also an interactive section to the exhibit where you can choose short videos on any topic from land and usage rights to language and sovereignty or even the spiritual connection to land to name just a few.

There are a lot of aspects from a bygone era at the why treaties matter exhibit. Many, if not all, of which affect us today. Lifestyles from this era to today have changed drastically, however. But, these treaties bridge that divide from one era to the next; from a life that has changed so severely yet holds on to lessons and traditions from long ago.

Fourth Quarter Newsletter – 2015 Tribal Chair Carri Jones

Boozhoo and greetings! We hope our Band membership is enjoying the warm summer weather and children are enjoying summer vacation. Many exciting details and updates are provided in the following Fourth Quarterly Newsletter. Miigwech.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Take-a-Kid Fishing 2015

A variety of LLBO divisions and Boys and Girls Club took children fishing on Cass Lake in the beginning of June 2015. Over 204 kids fished, went on boat rides and enjoyed a picnic style lunch.

Spring Tree Giveaway

This year's Spring Tree Giveaway was hosted by DRM, Tribal Chair's Office and Special Events in May 2015. Community members were welcomed to take home wild plum, crabapple, highbush cranberry, juneberry, or chokecherry seedlings or white pine, red pine and white spruce tree seedlings. Picnic food was served as well as flower pots to paint for the children.

Duluth Welcoming Spring Feast

Duluth LIC, Tribal Chair's Office and Special Events hosted the Duluth Welcoming Spring Feast in beginning June 2015. Duluth area Band members were invited to enjoy a feast of roast beef, wild rice, mashed potatoes, mac'n'cheese and dessert along with the RBC leadership. Raffles and prizes were given away. Flower pots were available for painting.

Why Treaties Matter Exhibit at the Northern Lights

The Public Relations division coordinated the traveling Why Treaties Matter Exhibit to be at the Northern Lights from June 8th, 2015 until August 28th, 2015. The exhibit is free and open to the public. Spiritual Advisor Larry Aitken opened the event with Land Director Levi Brown and LLTC Instructor Elaine Fleming spoke on the importance of this exhibit. Treaties are important because treaty making acknowledges our nationhood. Nations have a legal and moral right to make decisions about our resources, their citizenship, economy, and governance. We are peoples of nations. Therefore, we must understand our treaty rights and history to become a stronger nation for our Band members.

Embracing "Two Spirited LGBTQ Awareness Day"

On June 17th Leech Lake Housing Authority held their first annual Two Spirited LGBTQ Awareness Day in partnership with Outfront Minnesota. This event helped raise awareness and build a community for youth with sexual identity questions. The event envision a state and tribe where LGBTQ individuals have equal opportunities, protection and rights. Attendees enjoyed a lunch, variety of speakers and door prizes. LLHA hopes to hold a bigger celebration next year.

GOVERNMENT PROGRESS

Collaborative E.P.A. Consultation – St. Regis Superfund Site

The RBC leadership will host a consultation meeting with Environmental Protection Agency staff on June 24th, 2015. The meeting is being held with goals of opening communication between our two parties as well as agree upon mutual goals concerning the St. Regis Superfund Site as we move forward with clean-up and accountability. The RBC will continue holding these meetings with community partners to accomplish the Band's priorities concerning our important natural resources.

Newly Approved Community Centers

Onigum and S. Lake communities are currently in the planning and construction phases to build new community centers as current building are in dire need of replacement. The RBC approved a resolution to support the funding back in April 2015. S. Lake plans to construct their new community center near the new powwow grounds.

Leo Jordon Onigum Pier Dedication

In June 2015, Leech Lake DRM assembled and dedicated a fishing pier in Onigum to community member Leo Jordon. Cass County donated the pier at no-charge to Leech Lake to use at our own will. Fourth district Cass County Commissioner Scott Bruns attended the official Pier Dedication Ceremony remarking he is impressed by the relationship the Band and Cass County has successfully built in recent years.

Leo Jordon served as a valuable Leech Lake employee for over 20 years with the DRM, serving as a Conservation Field Officer, Fields Operations Supervisor and Chief Conservation Officer. Leo was one of the first Native American Cass County Deputy Sheriffs in 1972. Leo served as a role model to many Conservation Enforcement staff during his time spent with the Band.

Youth Division coordinated their Take-a-Youth-Fishing Day in conjunction with the Pier Opening. Youth and the Onigum community enjoyed a sunny day fishing, boat rides and canoeing from the new pier along with raffles and meal.

U.S. Senate Committee on Indian Affairs Testimony

Senator Franken invited Tribal Chair Jones to submit written and oral testimony in front of the U.S. Senate Committee on Indian Affairs. The testimony focused on the Band's long struggle to replace the Bug O Nay Ge Shig High School (High School) facility, which is administered and funded by the Bureau of Indian Affairs' (BIA) Bureau of Indian Education (BIE). Through treaties and executive orders, our ancestors ceded to the United States significant tracts of our homelands. In return, the U.S. promised to provide for school buildings, teachers, and the education of our youth. Hundreds of thousands of additional acres of our homelands were taken from us pursuant to the land allotment mandates of the federal Nelson Act in 1889, which is the Minnesota version of the General Allotment Act. As with the various treaty promises made to our people, one focus of the Nelson Act was to dedicate funds generated from these lands for “the establishment and maintenance of a system of free schools among said Indians, in their midst and for their benefit.” These treaty promises have no expiration dates and remain the law of the land. Sadly, these promises have not been kept.

Jones’ testimony urges Congress and the Administration to develop a comprehensive plan to fully fund the construction needs at the Leech Lake High School and fix organizational barriers which are preventing this. In addition, Congress and the Administration must work in consultation with tribal leaders, educators, and others to develop innovative ways of funding and building Indian reservation schools.

LOBBYING UPDATE

Leech Lake is dedicated towards fighting these educational obstacles our Tribal schools face. The Minnesota Legislature concluded their one-day special session on June 13th and I’m pleased to report the legislation appropriates a total of $16.7 million for Indian education formula aid and an increase of $5 million for tribal contract schools. The Indian education aid is replacing the Success for the Future program as we recommended. It allows schools to be eligible to receive aid that enroll 20+ American Indian students and operating an American Indian education program. The legislation also amends the calculation for determining tribal contract or grant school aid and raises the maximum per pupil aid cap from $1,500 to $3,230 for fiscal years 2016 and 2017.

As a result of our efforts, the Bug-O-Nay-Ge-Shig school will receive an increase of $1.3 million for the next two years. The Band thanks Governor Mark Dayton and his Education Commissioner Brenda Cassellius.

Why Treaties Matter Exhibit

The exhibit is about many things, and these issues of land and rights and tradition and culture are deeply personal. It is about how we got to where we are. It is about how one thing changed into another across time. The name itself “why treaties matter” is a tool to get us to think. To think about how and why these treaties matter. To think about what things might be like if they never existed in the first place. To think about how we can use them to make our lives better, and to make the lives of our children more promising.

The exhibit will be on display through August and is free of charge. There is also a website for the exhibit which can be viewed here: treatiesmatter.org

New Drug Task Force Agreement

Picture taken by Vivian LaMoore

A new joint powers agreement between the Mille Lacs Band of Ojibwe, Upper Sioux, Lower Sioux and Leech Lake tribes was signed into effect recently creating a new drug task force between the participating bands. With illegal and prescription drugs being so readily available the new task force is an effort to try and push back against the drug trade.

There are a range of issues that are key to this effort, but having babies born addicted to a substance is one of the saddest ones. Children are the unheard victims of this fight. They are at the end of the ripple effect that starts with the supply and demand for drugs.

Officer Derrick Naumann will head up the task force that will work in cooperation with existing task forces, the state patrol, county sheriff departments, patrol officers, detectives, and all other law enforcement agencies.

Fourth Quarter Newsletter

Penny DeVault District I Rep.

Aaniin, from the Office of the District AI Representative. Once again it is my pleasure to highlight a few areas of importance from the Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe.

ELDERS

It is always a pleasure for myself and my staff to attend and support our Elder events. Without the knowledge and wisdom provided by our cherished elders we are lost. They are our teachers and our leaders, our past and our present. This Quarter, my staff was able to attend, as a member of the planning committee, the Elder Abuse Awareness Conference at the Mystic Lake Casino on April 29-May 1, 2015, along with 70+ Elders from the Leech Lake Band. It was great to see all of the rural and urban elders reuniting and having a great time, while learning about a serious matter that affects us all.

Another great event for our Elders was the annual Elders Feast put on by the Leech Lake Housing Authority. The District I Office was able to attend and help out at this event. Always great to visit and mingle with our Elders. Again, there were over 300 Elders in attendance at the Northern Lights Casino on May 16, 2015. A wonderful meal and entertainment was provided, along with t-shirts, gift bags, lawn chairs and door prizes. Thank you to all of the many volunteers that make this truly a great event for our Elders.

This June, Wisdom Steps held the "Honor Our Elders" 15th Annual Celebration and Conference at Black Bear Casino Resort. Wisdom Steps is a preventative health initiative developed by American Indian Elders for American Indian Elders. For more information about Wisdom Steps and how you can join, contact your local Wisdom Steps Advisor or your Elder Advocate.

The next portion of my report will also involve our Elders and also our Youth...

One Sight

An exciting initiative that the Band is proud to present and offer is the upcoming OneSight Eye Clinic on September 14-18, 2015 at the Cass Lake Bena High School. Walking Shield, Inc. will be partnering with OneSight to provide eye exams and brand new glasses for the visually impaired on the Leech Lake Reservation. The OneSight Team will provide 800-1000 students and 150 Elders and Veteran's with exams and eye glasses if needed, the eye glasses will be manufactured on sight that week with their prescription.

"Walking Shield's mission is to improve the quality of life for American Indian families by coordinating programs that provide shelter, healthcare, community development support, educational assistance, and humanitarian aid. Working closely with tribal leaders, Walking Shield provides a variety of services to American Indian families"

OneSight: "Since our mission began 25 years ago, OneSight has provided vision care access to 8.5 million people worldwide; access they previously never had."

The Leech Lake Band is very thankful and grateful for this opportunity. For more information, contact the Leech Lake Public Relations Department or the District I Office.

YOUTH

The Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe is offering a four week internship for the summer 2015 beginning on July 6, 2015. Eligible applicants must be a High School Junior or Senior with preference given to applicants considering or seeking post-secondary education. Applicants must be a member of the District I Community and a Leech Lake Enrolled Band Member. The intern will gain knowledge and experience about the processes concerning tribal administration, the Reservation Business Committee (RBC), and the LLBO Divisions. The internship positions are paid and post-secondary credits are offered from the Leech Lake Tribal College if post-secondary requirements are met. This is a new and exciting project for the District I Office to be a part of and we would like to thank the Chairwoman's office for allowing us to shadow their Internship Program.

On July 31, 2015 the District I Office will be coordinating a Youth Trip to the Target Center in Minneapolis, MN. On this night, the Atlanta Dream will be playing the Minnesota Lynx. We are very fortunate enough to be able to attend with our Youth and partake in this awesome event where we will be able meet Shoni Schimmel. Please contact the District I Office or your local youth coordinator for more information.

Regalia Classes

We are happy to report that the District I Regalia classes have definitely been a huge success. This endeavor certainly would not have been possible without the collaboration between the Blandin Foundation and the Leech Lake Band. We would like to extend our appreciation to all of the talented instructors; Annie, Amanda, Tarah, and Clara. Also thank you to our participants for their hard work, dedication and commitment to working evenings and weekends. This opportunity for our communities has been a great addition to our other community events working towards bringing all members together.

Also, this summer we have been fortunate enough to continue with our District I Youth Dance Specials at our three District I Powwows; S. Lake, Ball Club and Inger. This past month we were able to hold the first dance special at the S. Lake Powwow, we would like to thank the powwow committee for allowing us the time to do this. Thank you to all of our participants and to the elders for their assistance. We plan to continue on with this at the Mii-Gwitch Mahnomen Days Powwow and ChaChaBahNing Powwow. We have already received a generous donation from Robin Wilson and family on behalf of our late elder and longtime community member Ella Wilson; this jingle dress will be gifted to a youth in her honor during the 53rd Annual Mii-Gwitch Mahnomen Days Powwow.

DISTRICT I ELDER SPOTLIGHT

It is with great honor that we would like to feature Louis Boyd as our Elder Spotlight for this month. Louis is a longtime resident and elder of the S. Lake Community. He is an extremely intelligent and passionate man that loves his family dearly. Louis raised seven children who then blessed him with thirteen grandchildren (nine girls and 4 boys) and one great grandchild and another one on the way. When Louis speaks of his children and grandchildren the love and pride is very apparent.

Louis was raised in a logging camp with his family until about the age of seven when they moved to a house in S. Lake. It was during this time that Louis and his family really began to focus on their traditional values. Louis accredits his younger brother for steering his family down the traditional path; when as just a young boy, his brother asked his mom to make him a dance outfit. Louis' mother made both of her sons dance outfits and Louis has been dancing and following the Pow Wow Trail ever since. Louis is considered a legend on the Pow Wow trail and was at one time an International Dance Champion in fancy and grass dance. Louis estimates his time as a dancer on the Pow Wow trail at about 60 years and continues to dance to this day!

As a young man, Louis enrolled in Bemidji State University, but did not finish until later in life. At this time, he was instrumental in developing the Indian Studies Minor, where he was tasked with the job of reaching out to various elders of many different tribes and asking what they would like to be taught in collegiate Indian Study classes. He then worked in the woods when a near tragic experience made him realize it was time to go back to finish his degree. When he returned to Bemidji State University he found that they now offer a major in Indian Studies, being a clear passion of his, his educational decisions were obvious. Louis is a proud graduate of Bemidji State University and holds a degree in Indian Studies. Louis then used his degree to teach Indian Studies at Bug-O-Nay-Ge-Shig School and also in Minneapolis, for some time. Louis has devoted his life to the Native American culture and teachings and has an arsenal of inspiring stories of his travels, the people he has met, and lessons he has learned. When asked if there was anything specific Louis would like included in his article he pointed to a vast collections of VHS video tapes and explained his collection extended to his bedroom where he had video reels and they are all of pow wows! In doing this I believe he was expressing his love for our culture and hopes to spread his knowledge and passion to the people.

THANK YOU FOR SHARING YOUR STORIES & KNOWLEDGE WITH US, LOUIS!
WE HOPE YOU HAVE A VERY HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

Youth Spotlight will continue on page 13

Fourth Quarterly Report 2015

Steve White District II Rep.

Greetings from the District II Office!! Summer is finally upon us! I hope you are all enjoying yourselves. I would like to congratulate all those that recently graduated from school. May all of your futures be a great success!!

On April 9th, 2015 Congressional Representatives such as Rick Nolan, John Kline and Todd Rokita took a tour of the Bug-O-Nay-Ge-Shig school to witness for themselves the conditions of the former school bus garage that was converted into a temporary learning facility when enrollment increased in the early 1980's. Leech Lake has been featured in several local and national news stories regarding this issue that has sparked debate from Washington D.C. to St. Paul. We are not going to stop this effort. Our children deserve a better facility and better education that will come with a safe school

The Lyman "DeDe" Losh Transitional Home had its grand opening in May. If you need to utilize this facility you first have to fill out an application. You can go directly to the Home or you can also fill out the application with Julie at the Homeless Program at Leech Lake Housing. There is a process that you do need to go through. The Transitional Home just received a grant in the amount of $119,500.

On April 11th, 2015; we had our "Spring Is In The Air" feast in Bena. There was also a homeless shelter meeting where some presenters from Housing, the Police Department, Tribal Development, and Gaming spoke to the nearly 100 people that attended. There were door prizes for young and old, and we also shared a delicious meal. There were some leather jackets that were donated by the Leech Lake Legacy ladies available for whom ever wanted one. After the meeting there were tours of the newly remodeled Lyman "DeDe" Losh Transitional Home. A great day was had by all!!

On April 24th, 2015 there was a Cass County Board and LLBO joint meeting in an effort to not only continue the relationship, but to also grow the partnership between the Leech Lake Band and Cass County leadership. A memorandum of understanding, from government to government, was signed in early 2014 and this most recent meeting was called to help tighten the relations between both bodies.

Leech Lake shares more land base with Cass County than any of the four counties where our borders cross. Therefore, having a solid mode of communication between the two can not only make service delivery more efficient but it can help us each to both save budget dollars and secure funding for ongoing and future projects. One very large part of this caveat in the relationship will be bolstered by the new justice center that Leech Lake is currently building which will offer the ability to serve northern Cass County/Leech Lake Band members and save them a trip to Walker, MN—the seat of Cass County courts.

Art Chase and I joined Cass County officials and traveled to Washington D.C. in June to request funds to replace the bridge on County Road 8 located in Federal Dam. I see children along with adults walking on both sides of the bridge and am very concerned for their safety. Cass County's proposal would provide walk-ways on both sides of the bridge, which would keep individuals safe from traffic.

The District II Regalia Making Classes were a huge success and are coming to an end. The instructor for Sugar Point was Eva White. She started her class in March and completed it in May. Bonita Desjarlais was the instructor for Bena. She started her class the second week in June and is already finished. Alexis Graves is now the instructor for the Kego Lake area. She started her classes the middle of June and will be done by the middle of July. I would like to say that I am happy that the District I & District II offices collaborated on this project. These classes were very beneficial for all that were involved. I hope to bring this class to the communities again real soon.

As of July 1st, 2015 all elders over 55 and disabled people are eligible for the $300.00 again. You can go directly to Tribal Assistance to fill out the application. It needs to go to a vendor though and cannot be put in your personal name. If you can't make it to Cass Lake to fill out the paperwork then just call my office and my assistants will be happy to help you.

Again I would like to let everyone know that if you are unable to make it to my office in Cass Lake or to the Local Indian Council meetings to speak to me about the issues you may face, then contact my staff at 335-8202 or 8341 and they will be glad to set up a meeting time and date so we can address these problems together. I am more than willing to come to your house to meet with you.

If you do not receive the flyers that District II office mails out every month and would like to start receiving them then just call the office at (218)335-8202 or (218)335-8341 and give one of my assistants your address so they can add you to our list. Or if you want to update your address you can also do that.

Miigwetch,

Steve White
District II Representative

Fourth Quarter Newsletter LeRoy Fairbanks-Staples District III Representative

Leech Lake Band congratulates all of our Leech Lake Band students who graduated this spring! We are pleased to announce that we had 68 high school graduates and received news of 28 new college graduates during Quarter 4 of this year. Congratulations graduates! Thank you and your families for the hard work that you put in and we wish you well in the next stage of life that you choose.

District III Representative LeRoy presented his annual contribution to the LeRoy Staples Sr. and LeRoy B. Fairbanks Scholarship Fund at the Leech Lake Tribal College. In 2012, LeRoy pledged to give $50,000 over four years to establish a scholarship endowment fund in order to support Leech Lake students who choose to attend the LL Tribal College. The recipient of the LeRoy Staples Sr. and LeRoy B. Fairbanks Scholarship this year is Andrea Brown.

Onigum pier opening

In June, we celebrated the opening of the Leo Jordan Memorial Fishing Pier at the former Onigum Marina site. Onigum community members came together with Leech Lake DRM, DPS, Public Relations, Youth Division, and Administrative staff to provide a family-focused day of celebration. Leech Lake provided fishing rods for area youth to break in the fishing dock. Employees and community members helped to bait hooks and drive boats, and several neighboring community members came to celebrate the new recreational area that is available in the Onigum area and to remember Leo Jordan's life and work.

Onigum community center approved

In April, the Leech Lake Tribal Council approved the financial and design stage of the plans to construct a new community center in Onigum. Council approved funding for the project, and the plans are moving ahead with the input of the Band's programs and the Local Indian Council that represents the Onigum community.

Drug Awareness Prevention meeting

In May, Leech Lake DPS provided an evening of learning, sharing, and healing when they held a community Drug Awareness and Prevention Meeting at the Mission Center. The meeting was open to all District III Band members, and more will be held in the future, as we know that this is not an easy nor quick issue to solve. LL Tribal Police and area law enforcement members presented information, and opened the evening up to discussion for participants to share stories and ask questions. The Mission and Buck Lake/SugarBush LIC's co-sponsored this informative session.

Legacy fund supports language revitalization at LL

Minnesota legislators passed the Omnibus Legacy Bill, during a Special Session in the early days of June. The bill had originally passed in the House in May on the final day of the regular session, but did not arrive at the Senate for a vote in time before the session concluded for the year. Sponsored by Rep. Dean Urdahl (R-Grove City) and Sen. Richard Cohen (DFL-St. Paul), the bill would appropriate $540 million to be allocated in the following manner:

Clean Water Fund:	$228.3 million
Arts & Cultural Heritage Fund:	$124.8 million
Outdoor Heritage Fund:	$97.8 million
Parks & Trails Fund:	$89.3 million

In the Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund, $2,500,000 is appropriated over the next biennium for Ojibwe and Dakota language revitalization projects in Minnesota, administered through the MN Indian Affairs Council. Of that portion, Leech Lake's Niigaane Ojibwemowin Immersion school will be granted $125,000 per year for their operations and implementation. The District III offices are dedicated to the support of Ojibwe language revitalization in all areas of our lives.

MN Education Bill increases support for tribal students

Also during MN Legislature's Special Session, MN lawmakers passed a $17 billion education funding bill that positively impacts Leech Lake's students. Included in that compromise bill is $18 million in new funding for Native American students and tribal schools overseen by the U.S. Department of the Interior Bureau of Indian Education.

Of that fund, the Success for The Future program will be transformed into a dedicated funding stream. Schools with at least 20 Native American students will receive a base of $20,000 in funding and $358 for each additional student. This means that school districts that serve Native American students will not have to compete for limited amounts of funding, but will have a significant amount dedicated to serving our students over the next two years.

Also in that fund, A $5 million increase in aid to tribal schools will boost their per pupil funding cap from $1,500 to $3,230. That money will offset federal dollars the schools should be receiving, but the new state funding is only budgeted for the next two years. Tribal Council and Minnesota lawmakers have long pushed for the Bureau of Indian Education to better fund schools here and across the nation. Using state funds to fill in where the federal government's funding is falling short sends a message to our students that they are not being overlooked. We are thankful for the cooperative work of our Tribal Nations Education Committee and the Minnesota Department of Education's Indian Education office for representing our communities to bring in this funding for the next two years. Minnesota has roughly 20,000 native students with one-third attending schools in the Twin Cities metro and the rest going to out-state district and charter schools. About 800 students attend four tribal schools overseen by the Bureau of Indian Education.

Miigwetch,

LeRoy Staples-Fairbanks
District III Representative

New Chief Bemidji Statue Dedication

A new bronze cast sculpture of “Chief Bemidji” (Shaynowishkung [he who rattles]) was celebrated earlier this summer on the shores of Lake Bemidji. A few citizens and groups came together to help get the project off the ground and to choose the place and the artist that would create a new statue to commemorate the Ojibwe leader.

The committee chose artist Gareth Curtiss of Olympia, Washington, who has three decades of experience, to sculpt the new statue. Curtis traveled from Illinois to Minnesota for the ceremony and dedication event.

The statue is not only a symbol of a leader from the past, but it also represents the time in which he led. The nineteenth century lives in the hearts of American Indians as a veritable “dark ages” because it was such a tumultuous time. From treaty signings and the forfeiture of land to battles between the Dakota and Ojibwe as well as the newly formed country of America pushing westward to expand its territory and economy; this was a time when deceit, murder, and the usurping of entire regions of native peoples was the norm. Children were taken from homes to be “educated” at boarding schools, dams were built-flooding food stands and uprooting villages and wild game, timber was harvested with promises of payment to Indian populations that was made in very small deceitful installments and turned the timber industry of this region into one of the largest government sponsored boondoggles of its time.

Some of the history surrounding the statue came to be an issue for local politicians. There are plaques that tell some of this history at the site on which Chief Bemidji stands, and they denote some of the history accurately, which is to say that some of the words and stories depict a dark time-to put it mildly. Putting these stories of truth in the public forefront and letting people read what really happened became a bit of a political mess that was voted on and approved by the Bemidji City Council in April of this year. It was an act of courage to not ignore these terrible times.

The City Council voted to keep the truth of the atrocities that were committed on the plaques. They chose to not hide what happened in this place so long ago. Telling the truth about the most difficult things can be a mechanism for healing. It can teach you things about people and history that reveal why things are the way they are now. Lie to yourself about history and behavior and the truth and the world, and you will not learn anything. But, if you let the truth in, you will learn as well as heal.

Celebrate a heritage of healing

Sanford Bemidji, Red Lake and Cass Lake IHS Hospitals and White Earth Health Center invite you to help honor the physicians, health care workers and holistic healers who are all dedicated to promoting physical, mental and spiritual health in our communities. This event is open to all who would like to show respect and celebrate the diversity in the healing process.

Leech Lake Engages EPA Regarding Superfund Pollution Removal

The Leech Lake Band recently met with EPA staff and took a tour of the superfund site that sits just north of the Division of Resource Management. The talks were candid and detailed and Leech Lake set out its opinion about how it wants the site cleaned up to help reduce health risks.

There is a long history when it comes to the superfund site and it begins with a company in the 1950's. The St. Regis Corporation operated a wood treatment facility in Cass Lake from 1957 to 1985. The Champion International Corporation ("Champion") assumed responsibility for the Site in 1985. Champion leased portions of the Site to Burlington Northern Railroad in 1988. The International Paper Company assumed responsibility for the Site in July of 2000.

Known chemicals used at the Site include creosote, pentachlorophenol ("PCP"), No. 2 fuel oil, ketone, and a chemical for preserving wood referred to as "CCA" comprised of copper, chromium and arsenic as a salt solution. Dioxins and furans are also chemicals of concern ("COCs") at this Site, originating as contaminants of industrial grade PCP. Additionally, the Band believes that the Site has not adequately been characterized, and other contaminants may be present, including but not limited to PCBs, DDTs, Mercury, Quinolines, and Carbozoles, for which additional work must be done to characterize and determine action levels for cleanup. On September 21, 1984 EPA placed the St. Regis Paper Company Site (the "Site") on the National priority List ("NPL"). The State of Minnesota Pollution Control Agency ("MPCA") was the responsible government unit ("RGU") for this Site until 1995, when the EPA became the RGU at the request of the Band.

The Site, as originally designated, was comprised of four operable units ("OU"). OU1 was the Treating Facility; OU2 was the Cass Lake City Dump; OU3 was the Extension of the Cass Lake Municipal Water System; and OU4 was the Contaminated Soil Vault. In February 1985, the MPCA and Champion International Corporation ("Champion") signed two Response Orders by Consent under the Minnesota Environmental Response and Liability Act of 1983 ("MERLA") to implement an agreed remedial plan for the Site, one for the Wood Treatment Facility Area and one for the City Dump Pit Area at the former Cass Lake City Dump. These Orders provided for a remedial investigation and feasibility study of the Site; development and implementation of a Response Action Plan to abate or minimize the release of hazardous substances from the Site; and routine monitoring to determine the effectiveness of the response actions.

Leech Lake is meeting with more state and federal workers in July so please stay tuned for more progress on the issue and more history of how the superfund site got to where it is.

Leo Jordan Honored in Onigum

Friday June 12th was a day for celebration to honor Leo Jordan who served Leech Lake for decades primarily as head of conservation and public relations for the Department of Resource Management here at Leech Lake.

There was a picnic and memorialization ceremony at the pier in Onigum to commemorate the work that was done by Leo. Kids by the dozens showed up to canoe and to go fishing.

Leo began his law enforcement career as a military policeman for the U.S. Army in Berlin Germany, during the years of the Berlin Airlift until being discharged in the early 1950's. In 1971 he continued his law enforcement career when he attended the BIA Law Enforcement Academy in Roswell, New Mexico.

Mr. Jordan worked as a deputy sheriff for the Cass County Sheriff's Department along with Lymon "Dede" Losh. Leo and Lyman were the first Indian Cass County Deputy Sheriffs. In 1972 a historic turn of events unfolded at the beginning of the movement for tribal self-determination as Leo and Lyman served the Sheriff's Office with distinction and bravery.

On March 17, 1975 Leo was hired as a conservation field officer to the newly established Leech Lake Conservation Enforcement Department. He served as a field officer until 1978 when he was promoted to Field Operations Supervisor. He was subsequently promoted to Chief Conservation Officer until his retirement in 1992. He did however return as a public relations officer until he fell ill in September of 1997.

Ladies, are you a survivor of domestic violence/sexual assault? Do you have a family member who is a survivor? Come join us Monday evenings at IHS in the S1 building for a talking circle as we complete the red solidarity shawls. When they are completed, these shawls will be worn by survivors or family members of survivors at different locations, as part of the healing process. The shawls are very sacred and symbolic to the Native people, and the fringe represents the tears of our women from the different types of violence they've endured.

Studies have shown when our hands are busy, we talk more. What happens when we talk more? We start healing!

You are welcome to come anytime between 3:00-7:00pm each Monday with a light supper to be served. No special sewing talent required! No Childcare available. Please RSVP by calling the number below for more information.

Minnesota's "Second Chance Law": New Expungement Laws Makes It Easier for People to Petition for Expungement of Their Criminal Record

Minnesota's new expungement laws, which came into effect January 1, 2015, make it easier for many people to fully seal their criminal record, both the records held by the Judicial Branch and those held by the Executive Branch (like the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension or "BCA"). (See Minnesota Statute 609A.01). An expungement is a court-ordered sealing (but not destruction) of a person's criminal record. An expungement can be mandated by statute or some situations granted by a court under the Court's inherent authority to manage judicial affairs. However, courts granting expungements that aren't covered by a statute, are only limited to sealing court criminal records. They cannot seal arrest records kept by the executive branches of the government like the BCA, and thus, these types of records could still show up on background checks in many cases.

Now with Minnesota's expanded statutory expungement law, or the "second chance law", the Legislature has given the Courts greater statutory authority to expunge the entire criminal record for many people who had been charged and/or convicted of crimes. The types of criminal records that may be expunged by statute are records relating to the criminal charges, sentencing and disposition, arrest data, transcripts of 911 calls, criminal investigative data, and booking photographs. (See Minnesota Statutes 13.82, 299C.10 and 299C.105). A person seeking to expunge their criminal record must generally prove by clear and convincing evidence that the benefit of the expungement to the Petitioner would outweigh the harm to the public and public safety. (See Minnesota Statute 609A.03, subd. 5 and 7).

Under Minnesota Statute 609A.02, subd. 1-3, there are now seven grounds upon which a statutory expungement can be granted:

First time drug possession offenses when the Petitioner has successfully completed all the terms under a stay of adjudication

Offenses committed by juveniles who were prosecuted as adults who are either discharged by the commissioner or are successfully discharged from probation under a stay of imposition or execution of a sentence

Criminal cases resolved in favor of the person seeking expungement (dismissed, acquittals or completion of diversion programs without finding/admission of guilt)

Successfully completed diversionary programs or Stays of Adjudication (with admission of guilt): If the petitioner has successfully completed the diversion program or the conditions of a stay of adjudication and has not been charged with a new crime for at least one year after completion of the program or stay

Misdemeanors and Petty Misdemeanors: The petitioner was convicted of or received a stayed sentence for a petty misdemeanor or misdemeanor and has not been convicted of a new crime for at least two (2) years since discharge of the sentence

Gross Misdemeanors: The petitioner was convicted of or received a stayed sentence for a gross misdemeanor and has not been convicted of a new crime for at least four years (4) since the discharge of the sentence.

Listed Felonies: The petitioner was convicted of or received a stayed sentence for a listed felony and has not been convicted of a new crime for at least five years. The list of eligible felonies can be found in Minnesota Statute 609A.02, subd.3(5).

Those interested in applying for an expungement should contact an attorney for guidance. A partner program, Legal Services of Northwest Minnesota (LSNM), has received a grant to provide assistance to individuals living in their 22-county service area for expungement related issues. Many of ALS' clients live within this same service area. If you have criminal convictions from a district court found in one of LSNM's 22-county service area (you don't necessarily have to reside in the county to receive help, but your convictions must be within one of these counties), you may be eligible for assistance regarding those expungements. The eligible counties are: Becker, Beltrami, Clay, Clearwater, Douglas, Grant, Hubbard, Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Mahnomen, Marshall, Norman, Otter Tail, Pennington, Polk, Pope, Red Lake, Roseau, Stevens, Traverse, Wadena, and Wilkin. Those with criminal convictions in one or more of these counties who are interested in speaking with an attorney regarding their eligibility for services should call DJ Yokum at LSNM at 1-800-450-2552. Otherwise, forms and information can be found under the "criminal expungement" section of "Self Help" tab on the Minnesota Judicial Branch website found at www.mncourts.gov.
