MEET OUR SHOW SECRETARY: SANDRA TRUSSELL

How long have you been with STRIDE shows?

This is my second season as STRIDE show secretary and I'm very pleased to see show attendance rising. It's been a pleasure getting to know the wonderful STRIDE volunteers and competitors.

Sandra is always smiling, even when last minute changes and minor crises hit the show office.

Why do you do what you do?

Becoming a show secretary was a natural progression of volunteering, then being a paid worker at the Wellington shows. It allowed me to earn extra money while indulging my passion, Dressage. Now that I've retired from riding and showing, and my grand old Dressage horse is in horsey heaven, I continue to work Dressage shows to be near what was the love of my life.

How long have you been riding Dressage?

I rode, trained, taught and showed Dressage for 35 years.

What would you like our members to know about you?

That though I no longer ride, Dressage and its principles remain a large part of my life. I learned much about how to treat others from Dressage and my horses. Having been on the other side of the desk at horse shows, I try to treat everyone as I would like to be treated. END

WED, JUNE 18TH, GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING.

LYNN ZACHARY, WINNER OF FREE SHOW SEASON, TELLS US HOW IT'S GOING

Editor's note: Each time a STRIDE member volunteers at a STRIDE show, he or she is entered into a drawing for a free show season. This is Lynn's report on her showing season so far.

First I would like to thank STRIDE for offering this wonderful gift of a free show season. Second, thanks to Laura Meadows for trading me the free show season she won (she said she didn't have her own horse) for the Janice Dulak Pilates classes I won but could not attend due to a scheduling conflict.

That whole situation was really weird because before the banquet I told my friend and current trainer, Tracy Bregman, that I was probably going to come home with a free show season. After all, I hadn't been to a show in 8 years and have had one lesson and about two dozen rides in the last 6 years. Since I moved to Ocala from Naples 3 years ago I have been volunteering at the STRIDE shows, not riding in them! Much to my delight and, admittedly, dread, I did come home with that free show season.

I started riding the very next morning, much to the surprise of my 18 year old Oldenburg, Dieter, who thought he was retired. We were both so out of shape that we had to take it slow.

Lynn and Dieter at STRIDE

Our first show was a little bit of a disaster in that we brought Dieter's pony with us. That was a bit complicated since D was looking for Harley, not paying much attention to me. We did survive the 2 tests and didn't do too badly.

At our second show we left the pony at home. That worked out better and our scores did improve somewhat. The pony wasn't too happy, but thankfully he is part Arab, so all that screaming and running he did up and down the fence line while we were away didn't bother him too much. I wonder what the neighbors thought?

We did much better at our third show, scoring a respectable 69.688% and 66.875% also in a large class, earning two second place ribbons. Since we collected third and fourth place ribbons at our first two shows, all we are missing is that blue one! We are looking forward to the last 2 shows of the season and are deeply grateful for the opportunity to get back in the saddle. Thank you again STRIDE and Laura Meadows for making it possible.

RECIPE: PORK CHOPS WITH GRAPES

Ingredients:

4-6 (3/4 inch thick) pork chops
1 cup dry white wine or chicken broth
Dash paprika
8 oz green seedless grapes (halved), about 1.5 cups
1 Tbsp butter
1Tbsp vegetable oil

1. Trim pork chops, making a few short cuts at the edges so they will lie flat. Season with salt and pepper to taste; sprinkle with paprika on both sides.

2. Heat the butter and oil in a large skillet over Med. heat. Brown chops on both sides; do not crowd chops.

3. Add wine to skillet and reduce heat to low. Cover" simmer gently for 10 minutes or until the chops are no longer pink or until juices run clear (170 degrees for well done). Remove chops to a warm platter, keep warm.

4. Add grapes to skillet. Cook for about 3 minutes while stirring. Pour grape sauce over the chops.

Serves 4 or 6 depending on the number of chops.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE By Loretta Lucas

"Happiness is not a matter of intensity, but of balance, order, rhythm and harmony."

Thomas Merton, Philosopher & Monk

Gee, that sounds like the pursuit of Dressage, doesn't it? Balance, order, rhythm and harmony – what we all strive for in our partnership with our horse. I find that these are easier to find in the saddle if my life away from the barn is also balanced, ordered, rhythmical and harmonious.....in Merton's words, if I am happy. Even in retirement, I find my days have a fairly predictable flow, varying only in the details.

Training has a predictable yet varied flow as well. We set broad goals, then begin at the base of the training scale, seeking rhythm and relaxation first as we build the skills to reach the goal. Some days it seems we take the proverbial "two steps back and one step forward", but slowly glimmers of progress appear. And we smile and pat our horse, because we are happy.

So, as we enter the blazing days of summer and our riding is restricted to the cool mornings or stormy evenings, I wish you happiness.

May you find Balance, Order, Rhythm and Harmony as you flow through your days in and out of the saddle.

And intensity? Well, a little bit may be OK, but haven't we all fallen into the Intensity Trap? Take a deep breath. Breathe in, breathe out, do it again. Be happy!

- Loretta

JUDGE'S CORNER By Charlotte Trentelman, "S" Judge

Three points have come up about our judges in the past few months. I'd like to explain so there is less confusion.

"Judges are not allowed to compete as Adult Amateurs." False!

If you teach, train, or ride a horse for payment in any division, you are considered a professional. However, adult amateurs may become "L" graduates and proceed up the ladder of judging cards, too. In some Western Divisions (non-USEF), judges are deemed professionals, but, the Western Dressage Association of American is currently using USDF/USEF Dressage judges--and, we can be either professional or amateur.

"Judges can't be competitors." True and False!

They can't compete in a show where they are judging. As a licensed judge, though, I can judge one weekend and compete the next. I can also compete for year end awards Nationally, against people that I have given scores to. I'm not going to say whether I think that's a good or bad idea--but, it is the current system. STRIDE has at least three judges this year who are competing at other STRIDE shows. Unlike recognized shows, we do try to keep each one away from judging the classes in which they normally compete. A STRIDE manager may compete also. We learned a while back that, if you restrict using knowledgeable competitors from volunteering, you delete a good pool of workers.

"I take lessons from that judge, so, I can't be judged by her/him." False—in a schooling show.

Most judges will tell you it doesn't matter and it almost never gives the student an advantage. (They know the student's biggest problems!) In a recognized situation, the student may not take a lesson within 30 days of the show. The 30 day rule also holds for boarding in a judge's barn. Buying, selling, or leasing a horse that involves a judge extends the time to 90 days. As judges, we do try to keep from judging people that we have a professional partnership with. In a perfect world, the judges don't know anyone who comes in front of them. That would mean we'd have to pay a lot of travel expenses (hotels, meals...). That would mean taking a chance on an unknown judge, who might not be easy to work with. Paying airfare from California, frankly, isn't in the budget. All of our judges have gone through extensive programs to help keep the standard of Dressage correct and positive. Ask any "L" grad how "easy" it was to make that first step (NOT!). We judge because we like it, even when being honest doesn't give the highest scores. When we do see the 9's and 10's, it's awesome! END

MINUTES OF STRIDE GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING MAY 21, 2014

By Jeff Broederdorf

Meeting at Ruby Tuesday restaurant was called to order at 7pm by our President, Loretta Lucas. 18 people were present.

Loretta announced that we will have covered arena for the September and October shows!!

April minutes accepted by Charlotte and 2nd by Steve

Treasurer Karen Kim reported that we had $17,206.33 in the bank, NOT including May show expenses

Carol Rike was not at the meeting, so Loretta announced that we had 235 members.

The adult camp, "Enhancing the Fundamentals of Dressage" is scheduled for the evening of October 3 and the weekend of October 4th and 5th. Charlotte is hosting camp at Rebel Ridge. The camp is looking for sponsors, letters and forms will be available within the month.

Loretta also briefly mentioned the Training/ Boarding Directory on the STRIDE website, make all inquiries to Hellena to get info in Directory.

Bob Giles in going to Europe to compete in the USEF Para Equestrian Driving Team World Championships and is looking for donations. Irene Gentile motioned to donate, Vickie Rollack 2nd. Su Zi mentioned that FL WHIPS were donating $1,000.00 and asked STRIDE to match. Motion was passed and Karen Kim sent a check the next day.

There were some issues from the May show that the Show Committee already discussed, We continue to work with FHP Management to prevent stall cleaning fees. Loretta has met with Ellen to discuss show issues, and Charlotte will follow up with Ellen in the near future. There is a private company that would come in and clean the stalls for $10.00 per stall. They are called "Rent a Stripper" They will leave stalls broom clean.

Irene Gentile is seeking volunteers to help with the Banquet this year. Possible places would be: Elks Lodge, Golden Hills, Harbor Hills and several others were discussed. Karen Kennedy has offered to do the programs and the slide show for the Banquet.

Su Zi discussed a Trace/Hunter Pace that will take place at the FHP on July 27th 2014. Cost will be $20.00 per entry or $25.00 the day of event. Contact Ellen at the horse park for more info

Su Zi also announced that she published a art book and it can be purchased for $20.00.

Braggs:

- Ellie got Flying changes both ways by herself!!
- Loretta went to Wellington last weekend with her horse, competing at the Jim Brandon Equestrian Center and did VERY well!!!!
- Jeff bragged about Steve's new horse.
- Jeanne Abbott bought her granddaughter a pony.

Garnet Robinson was the guest speaker, she talked about the "Masterson Method", an integrated, multi-modality method of equine massage. It is a unique, interactive method of equine massage in which you learn to recognize and use the responses of the horse to your touch to find and release accumulated tension in key junctions of the body that most affect performance. In contrast to most traditional modalities, it enables the horse to actively participate in the process of releasing tension. It is something you do with the horse, rather than to the horse. This participation and interaction is what makes the method fascinating for those who use it.

Irene mentioned that her horses get it done and to let her know if anyone wanted to see how it was done to let her know. Jeff offered to have a Demo done at his farm and will be sending around an email when its set up.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:05pm. END
