

ST RAYMOND SCHOOL

WE ARE PROUD TO BE A
BLUE RIBBON SCHOOL 2009

Recognized for Academic Excellence
Committed to Leadership

Dear St. Raymond School Family,

We know without question that all of you, as school families, appreciate our devoted faculty and staff. We are also aware of the current economic state and how it may impact your family. Through their careful guidance, our children are encouraged to develop in the spirit of Christ. It is also no secret that the teachers at St. Raymond and in the parochial system earn substantially less than their public school counterparts. They make this sacrifice because of their dedication to Catholic education and academic excellence. Being named a 2009 National Blue Ribbon School validated what we at St. Raymond School already know. Our children are receiving an excellent education, both academically and spiritually.

With this in mind, the School Advisory Commission will again collect donations for the Teacher Appreciation Fund. We've had tremendous success since the inception of the fund ten years ago. Last year, half of the school families participated for a total of approximately $28,000. These gifts, in addition to $3,000 given by the Rev. Robert J. Loftus Endowment and Scholarship Fund, were distributed to the faculty and staff.

Keep in mind that each student at St. Raymond may be served by an average of 10 faculty and staff members each week—homeroom teacher, computer, library, gym, art, Quest, Resource, nurses, secretaries, assistant principal and principal, to name a few. We are blessed to have each and every one of them and the fund acknowledges their commitment to St. Raymond School.

We ask you to consider contributing to the Teacher Appreciation Fund. Your donation is intended to replace a Christmas gift and all other teacher appreciation requests, with the exception of the $1 donation for your teacher's birthday. The Family and School Association's Teacher Appreciation Luncheon in January is funded separately from these donations.

Please consider a donation of any size. Your donation can be made by cash, check or debit/credit credit card (via Give Central). Please see the donation details on the other side of this letter. All contributions are truly appreciated and we thank you in advance for your generosity. Please know that 100% of your donation is given to faculty and staff. Please return your donation by Monday, December 1st.

In Christ,
