SPEECH, DRAMA AND CREATIVE DRAMA 2015

EXTRA CURRICULAR | AVAILABLE YEARS 1-11

The aim is to equip the student with communication skills and a growing self-confidence through drama, mime, improvisation, story telling, public speaking, verse and prose, monologues and duologues.

Students are able to enter Eisteddfods, and a concert is presented at the end of the year with items from the year's program and scenes from plays.

Students may sit for examinations in AMEB.

Seniors may sit for AMEB public speaking through ASCA or the International Board Trinity Guildhall. Lessons are before school or after school. This is negotiated with the students.

Teacher: Mrs S Cooper
(15 lessons per semester)

Fees	Group:	$330 per Semester
	Group of 2:	$390 per Semester
	Individual:	$610 per Semester

Diploma students work individually or in groups of 2.

Please kindly return the form with remittance attached.

Please note: Refunds are not given. Four weeks' notice in writing is to be given at the end of Semester 1 for any discontinuation. Otherwise the student will be charged for the following term. It is a year's program with AMEB examinations in Term 3 and concerts in Term 4. Cheques are to be made payable to S. Cooper.
