Payments received for the benefit of the child/ren, including payments from the Social Security Administration, Department of Veterans Affairs, or other governmental agency or life insurance proceeds, annuity payments, trust distributions, or retirement survivor benefits, shall be a credit against this obligation. Any remaining balance of the child support is an obligation of Obligor's estate.

9L. Life Insurance Policy

Check here if the person ordered to pay child support should also be ordered to maintain a life insurance policy for as long as child support is ordered.

As additional child support, the person paying child support under this order is ORDERED to obtain and maintain a life insurance policy on his or her life for as long as child support is ordered. The value of the policy shall be at least as much as the total child support obligation. The person receiving child support under this order must be named as the primary beneficiary for the benefit of the children.

10. Medical Support

The obligation to pay child support and medical support for a child terminates when:

- The child turns 18, unless when the child turns 18 he or she is enrolled and complying with attendance requirements in a secondary school program leading toward a high school diploma or enrolled in courses for joint high school and junior college credit then child support terminates at the end of the month in which the child graduates. -or-
- The child marries, dies, or is emancipated by court order. -or-
- The child begins active duty in the United States armed forces. -or-
- A court terminates the parent-child relationship between the man ordered to pay child support and the child based on genetic testing that determines the man is not the child's father. -or-
- The person ordered to pay child support and the person ordered to receive child support marry or remarry each other, unless a nonparent or agency has been appointed conservator of the child.

Note about the law:

The Obligor is the parent ordered to pay child support. The Obligee is the parent ordered to receive child support.

The law presumes that the Obligor (the parent ordered to pay child support) will also pay for the children's health insurance or pay cash medical support. Texas Family Code 154.183

The law says that the monthly cost of health insurance is reasonable if it's not more than 9% of the Obligor's monthly resources for all of Obligor's child/ren. Texas Family Code 154.181(e)

10B. Availability of Health Insurance

The Court makes the following findings regarding the availability of health insurance:

(Check box 10B(1) or 10B(2) and fill in the requested information.)

10B(1) Health insurance for the children is available at reasonable cost to Obligor through:

- Obligor's work or membership in a union, trade association, or other organization or another source available to Obligor. The actual cost of the health insurance is $ _____ per month.
- Obligee's work or membership in a union, trade association, or other organization or another source available to Obligee. The actual cost of the health insurance is $ _____ per month.

(Note: If health insurance for the children is available to Obligee, and Obligee has other children covered by the same health insurance determine the actual cost of insuring the children in this case by doing this: Divide the total cost of insuring all the children covered by the plan by the number of children insured. Then, multiply that number by the number of children in this case.)

10B(2) Private health insurance for the children is not available to either parent at reasonable cost.

The child/ren is/are is not/are not currently covered by Medicaid.

The child/ren is/are is not/are not currently covered by C.H.I.P.

The cost, if any, is $ _____ per month per year.

Note about the law:

The law says the Court should make an order regarding medical support using the following priorities, unless the Court finds that a different order would be in the best interest of the child/ren.

The Court's 1st choice should be health insurance through a parent's work or membership in a union, trade association, or other organization (if it is available at a reasonable cost to the Obligor).

The Court's 2nd choice should be health insurance available to a parent through another source (if it is available at a reasonable cost to the Obligor).

The Court's 3rd choice should be health insurance through a government medical assistance program, i.e. Medicaid or C.H.I.P. Texas Family Code 154.182

(Check only if applicable.)

- Good cause exists to make an order that does not follow the priorities set out in Texas Family Code Section 154.182 for the following reasons: (See note about the law above.)

10D. Expenses Not Covered by Insurance

Obligor and Obligee are each ORDERED to pay 50 percent of all reasonable and necessary health-care expenses for the child/ren that are not covered by health insurance, unless:

10C(1) above is checked and Obligor is not providing health insurance as ordered, then Obligor is liable for 100 percent of all necessary medical expenses of the child/ren.

10C(2) above is checked and Obligee is not providing health insurance as ordered, then Obligee is liable for 100 percent of all necessary medical expenses of the child/ren.

If 10C(3) above is checked, Obligee is ORDERED to pay 50 percent of all reasonable and necessary health-care expenses for the child/ren that are not reimbursed by health insurance or covered by the cash medical support paid by Obligor and Obligor is ORDERED to pay 50 percent of the total unreimbursed health-care expenses that exceed the amount of cash medical support paid by Obligor. Obligor is liable for 100 percent of all necessary medical expenses incurred for the child/ren in any month that Obligor neither pays cash medical support nor provides health insurance for the child/ren.

Reasonable and necessary health care expenses that must be paid by the parents if not covered by insurance include:

- copayments for office visits and prescription drugs, and
- the yearly deductible, if any, and
- medical, surgical, and prescription drug expenses, and
- mental health-care services, and
- dental and orthodontic expenses, and
- eye care and ophthalmological expenses.

These reasonable and necessary health-care expenses do not include expenses for travel to and from the health-care provider or for nonprescription medication.

The parent who incurs a health-care expense on behalf of a child (called the "incurring parent") is ORDERED to give the other parent (called the "nonincurring parent") a copy of all forms, receipts, bills, statements, and explanations of benefits that show the portion of the expense not covered by insurance within 30 days of receipt.

The nonincurring parent is ORDERED to pay his or her percentage of any uninsured expense within 30 days of receiving documentation of the expense by:

- paying the health-care provider directly, or
- reimbursing the incurring parent, if the nonincurring parent's portion of the expense has already been paid.

10E. Claims

Either parent may file claims and receive payments directly from the insurance carrier. Further, for the sole purpose of Texas Insurance Code Sections 1204.251 and 1204.252, the party who is not carrying the insurance policy is designated the managing conservator or possessory conservator of the children.

Any reimbursement payments received from the health insurance carrier belongs to the parent who paid the expense. If the insurance carrier sends reimbursement to the parent who did not pay the expense, he or she is ORDERED to endorse the check and deliver it to the parent who paid the expense with 3 days.

10F. Health Insurance Policy Requirements

Each parent is ORDERED to follow all requirements of any health insurance policy covering the child/ren to get maximum reimbursement and direct payment from the insurance company. This includes requirements for:

- giving advance notice to the insurance company, and
- getting second opinions, and
- using "preferred providers."

If a parent incurs health-care expenses for the child/ren using "out-of-network" health-care providers or services, or fails to follow the health insurance company procedures or requirements, that parent shall pay all such health-care expenses incurred unless:

- the expenses are emergency health-care expenses, or
- the parents have a written agreement regarding such health-care expenses, or
- the Court makes a different order.

Denial of a bill by an insurance carrier does not excuse the obligation of the parents to pay the expense.

14. Property and Debt

WARNING: Additional forms are needed to divide retirement benefits and to transfer title to real estate.

If you plan to divide retirement benefits or you jointly own a house or land with your spouse, do NOT use this form without first talking to a lawyer. You can hire a lawyer to review and appropriately modify this decree and write the additional documents you must have for a flat fee. Call your local lawyer referral service or the State Bar of Texas Lawyer Referral Information Service at 1(800) 252-9690 for help finding a lawyer.

About community property: Texas is a community property state. This means that any new property or debt that either party obtains from the minute they are married until the minute the judge grants the divorce is probably community property, even if the property or debt is only in one spouse's name. There are only a few exceptions to the law of community property. The exceptions are gifts, inheritance or a recovery for personal injuries that occurred during the marriage that was not for lost wages or medical expenses. All community property and debt should be included in the Final Decree of Divorce.

About separate property: If either party receives a gift, an inheritance, or a recovery for personal injuries that occurred during the marriage that was not for lost wages or medical expenses, it is separate property. It is a good idea to list separate property obtained during the marriage as that individual's separate property in the Final Decree of Divorce.

Talk to a lawyer if you have questions about property and debt.

The Court makes the following orders regarding the parties' community and separate property:
