

2013 HAZARDOUS MATERIALS BILL OF LADING CHANGE

Effective January 1, 2013 the new regulations for hazardous material shipping papers will become mandatory. This is an easy change it merely requires the (UN) number to be listed first in the description. Below is an example of the current requirements as well as the new requirements that become mandatory on January 1, 2013

Current requirements

New requirements effective Jan 1, 2013

Both are acceptable until Jan 1, 2013 after this date the (UN) number must be listed first in the description. This new regulation will become mandatory January 1, 2013. Effective Jan 1, 2013 we will no longer accept shipments unless the bill of lading is completed in the new proper form.
