Overview

Application package

This application package consists of:

- an instruction guide, and
- the required form(s).

The instruction guide is a tool that provides

- the information you must know about this application before sending it to Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC), and
- assistance with how to fill out the forms and the required supporting documents.

Read the instruction guide thoroughly and then fill out each of the applicable form(s).

The form(s) are specifically designed with questions that will assist the processing of your application.

Why you need to read this guide

This guide provides all of the instructions necessary to complete this application. As a result of reading the guide, you should be able to:

- complete the application form, and
- determine what supporting documents need to be included.

Symbols used in this guide

This guide uses the following symbols to indicate information of particular importance.

This symbol...	Tells you...
	What you must do to have your application processed.

Note:	Tips that will assist you with this application.

The application process

The instructions provided in this guide follow the basic steps you will need to know to complete your application.

Before You Apply

Permanent Resident Card (PR Card)

A Permanent Resident Card (PR Card) is a document required by permanent residents, including children, who are planning on travelling outside of Canada and then return to Canada by any commercial transporter such as plane, train, boat or bus.

Who may use this application

This application is for permanent residents within Canada who would like to apply for:

- an initial (first) PR Card;
 - a renewal of a PR Card that has or will soon expire; or
 - a replacement of a PR Card that has been lost, stolen or damaged.

Assessing your eligibility

To be eligible for a PR Card, you must:

- be a permanent resident of Canada;
 - be physically present in Canada;
 - not be under an effective removal order;
 - not be a Canadian citizen or a registered Indian under the Indian Act; and
 - not be convicted of an offense related to the misuse of a PR card.

Permanent Residents outside of Canada

If you are currently outside Canada and do not have a valid PR Card to return to Canada, you will need to obtain a travel document from a Canadian visa office. An application is available on our Web site at <http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/applications/travel.asp>.

Once you have returned to Canada, you should apply for a PR Card.

You may be eligible for Canadian citizenship

Adults may be able to obtain Canadian citizenship if they:

- are permanent residents of Canada;
- have lived in Canada for at least three out of the four years preceding an application for Canadian citizenship; and
- meet all other requirements.

Note: Children will have to meet different requirements.

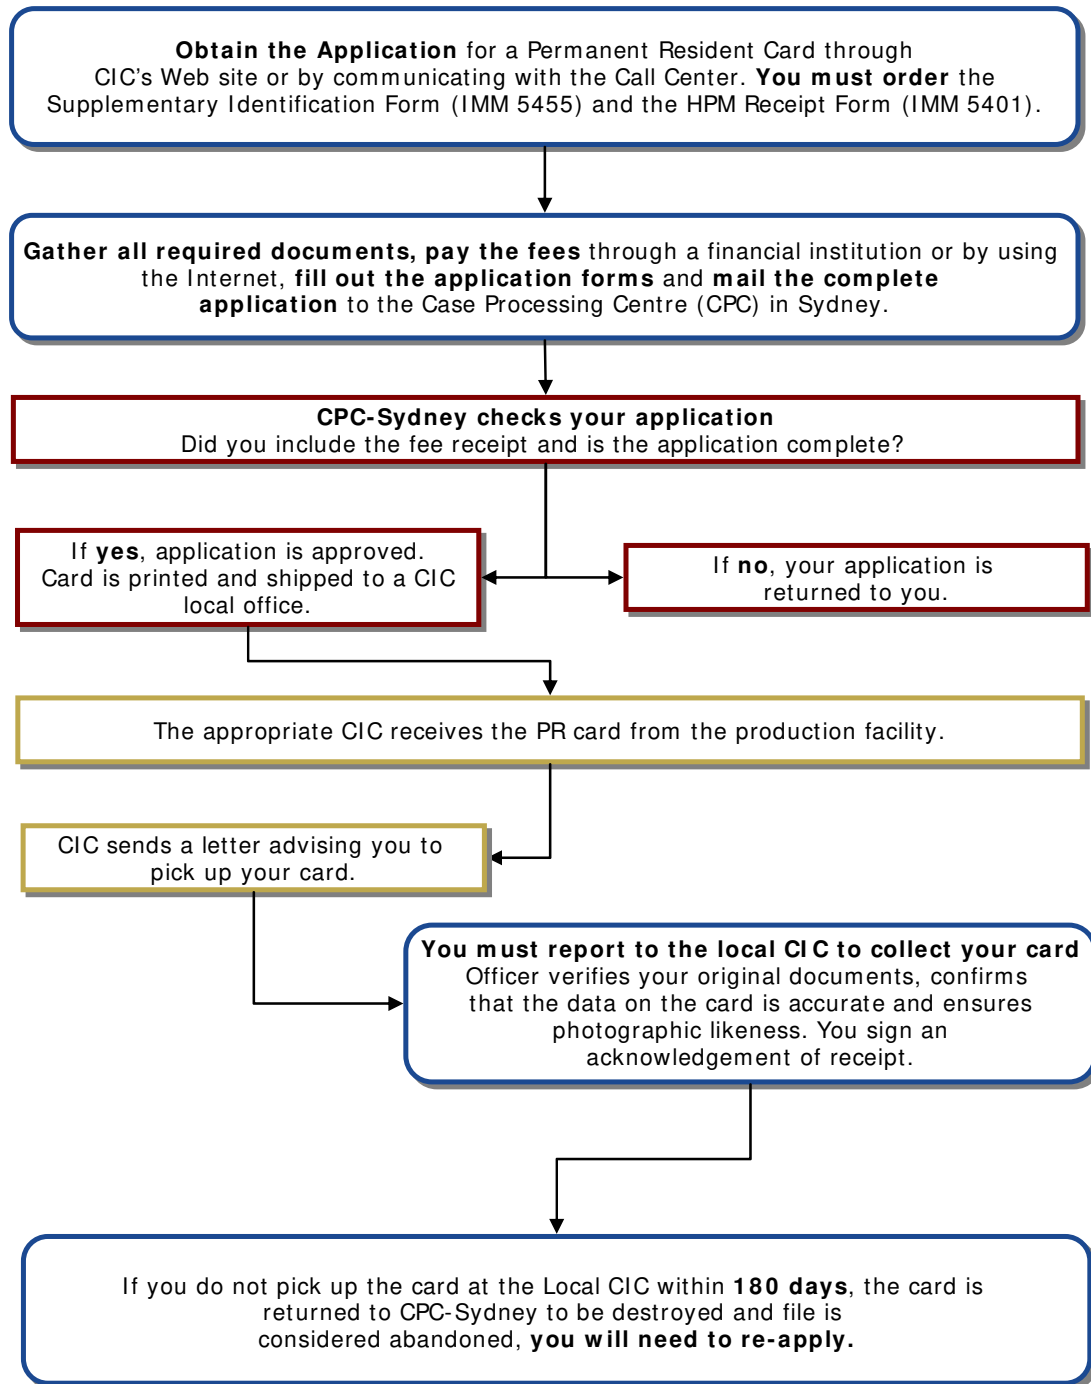

For information or to obtain an application package visit our Web site at www.cic.gc.ca or contact our Call Centre by consulting the "How to Contact CIC" section of this guide.

Error in your name

If your Record of Landing (IMM 1000), Confirmation of Permanent Residence (IMM 5292) or other permanent residence document contains an error in your name, complete and submit a Request to Amend the Immigration Record of Landing or Confirmation of Permanent Residence (IMM 5218) before you apply for a PR card. Visit our Web site or contact our Call Center to obtain an application kit.

CIC Assessment

Step 1. Gather Documents

What documents are required? The table below outlines the identity documents that you will need to send with your application. You should use the document checklist to ensure that your application includes all of the required documents.

If any of the required documents are missing, or photocopies are not clear, your application will be returned to you.

	Document	Description	Format
1	Your PR Card	If you are applying to renew your present card and: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • your card has expired, you should return it with the completed application for a new card; or • your card is still valid, you may hold on to it and return it to a CIC officer when you pick-up your new card at a local CIC office. If you are applying to replace your damaged card, you should return your card with your application.	Original
2	One (1) primary identity document	A copy of one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • your valid passport or travel document; or • the passport or travel document you held at the time you became a permanent resident; or • the certificate of identity or travel document issued by the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Canada.  The copy should show the document type and number, issue and expiry date, your name, photo and date of birth. Under exceptional circumstances, if it is impossible for you to obtain any of the above you must provide a: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • copy of any identity document issued outside Canada before you came to Canada; or • statutory declaration signed by you attesting to your identity and a statutory declaration also attesting to your identity signed by: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) a person who knew you before you came to Canada (such as a family member); or b) an official of an organization representing people from your country of nationality or former residence. 	Clear and legible photocopy

3	One (1) secondary identity document	A copy of one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • your Record of Landing (IMM 1000) or Confirmation of Permanent Residence (IMM 5292); or • copy of your valid provincial driver's licence, provincial photo-identity card or university or college student card; or • copy of your most recent Income Tax Assessment issued by Canada Revenue Agency.  When you pick up your card, you must bring with you the original documents copies of which you have included in your application.	Clear and legible photocopy

Applicants under the age of 18

- A clear and legible photocopy of one of the following:
- applicant's birth certificate (showing the applicant's name, date of birth, place of birth and the names of the parents or adoptive parents);
 - or
 - legal documentation proving guardianship, if the applicant has a legal guardian.

Legal change of name document

If your present name is different from the name printed on your Record of Landing (IMM 1000) or Confirmation of Permanent Residence (IMM 5292) you must send in supporting legal documentation as proof of your name change:

- a certified copy of a legal change of name document, court order, adoption order, marriage certificate issued by civil authorities with your new name or a divorce decree with your new name;
- a certified copy of your provincial driver's licence, provincial identification card or provincial health card in the requested name.

 If you have had a legal name change, you must include a copy of your Record of Landing (IMM 1000) or Confirmation of Permanent Residence (IMM 5292) with this application.

 Marriage and legal change of name certificates issues by the Government of Quebec before January 1, 1994 are not acceptable. You must obtain a new document issued by the civil authorities in the province of Quebec on or after January 1, 1994.

If you were outside Canada for 1095 days or more in the past five years

If applicable:

- proof of your relationship to the Canadian citizen you accompanied abroad and proof of his or her citizenship;
- proof of your full-time employment to a Canadian business abroad;
- a copy of your Returning Resident Permit (IMM 1228).

If you were accompanying a permanent resident of Canada working for a Canadian business abroad:

- proof of your relationship to this person;

 - proof of his or her permanent resident status.

Translation of documents

Any document that is not in English or French must be accompanied by:

- the English or French translation;
- a certified copy of the document; and
- a translator's declaration.

Note: The declaration must include the translator's name, the original language of the translated document and a statement signed by the translator that the translation is accurate.

Photographs

You will need two (2) photos taken within 12 months of the date of this application:

- One photo will be placed on the sticker of the Supplementary Identification Form (IMM5455);
- One photo to be placed in a small envelope (no staples or paper clips).

Follow the steps in Appendix B – Photo Specifications to obtain acceptable Permanent Resident Card photos.

Certified true copies

You must send certified copies of any legal name change document and of any document that is not in English or French.

To have a copy certified, an authorized person must compare the original document to the photocopy and must print the following on the photocopy:

- "I certify that this is a true copy of the original document";
- the name of the original document;
- the date of the certification;
- his or her name;
- his or her official position or title;
- his or her signature.

The person who certifies your photocopies cannot be a family member.

Use of a Representative (IMM 5476)

Who may use this form?

Complete this form only if you are appointing a representative.

If you have dependent children aged 18 years or older, they are required to complete their own copy of this form if a representative is also conducting business on their behalf.

What is a representative?

A representative is someone who has your permission to conduct business on your behalf with Citizenship and Immigration Canada.

When you appoint a representative:

- you authorize CIC to share information from your case file to this person;
- your application will not be given special attention nor can you expect faster processing or a more favourable outcome;
- they are authorized to represent you only on matters related to the application you submit with this form; and
- you can appoint only one representative for each application you submit.

You are not obliged to hire a representative. We treat everyone equally, whether they use the service of a representative or not.

You must notify us if your representative's contact information changes or if you cancel the appointment of a representative.

Types of representatives

There are two types of representatives:

Unpaid representatives can be:

- friends and family members who do not charge a fee for their advice and services;
- organizations that do not charge a fee for providing immigration advice or assistance (such as a non-governmental or religious organization);
- consultants, lawyers and Quebec notaries who do not, and will not, charge a fee to represent you.

Paid representatives:

If you want us to conduct business with a representative who is, or will be charging a fee to represent you, they must be authorized. Authorized representatives are:

- immigration consultants who are members in good standing of the Canadian Society of Immigration Consultants (CSIC);
- lawyers who are members in good standing of a Canadian provincial or territorial law society and students-at-law under their supervision;
- notaries who are members in good standing of the Chambre des notaires du Québec and students-at-law under their supervision.

If you appoint a paid representative who is not a member of one of these designated bodies, your application will be returned. For more information on using a representative, visit our Web site: www.cic.gc.ca.

Release of information to other individuals

To authorize CIC to release information from your case file to someone other than a representative, you will need to complete the form Authority to Release Personal Information to a Designated Individual (IMM 5475) which is available:

- on our Web site at www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/applications/release-info.asp; or
- from Canadian embassies, high commissions and consulates abroad.

The person you designate will be able to obtain information on your case file, such as the status of your application. However, they will not be able to conduct business on your behalf with CIC.

Step 3. Pay the Fee

Calculating your fees

Use the table below to calculate the total amount of fees to be paid. Fees must be included with this application.

OPTION 3. Accompanying a permanent resident outside Canada

You may count each day you accompanied a permanent resident outside Canada provided that:

- the person you accompanied is your spouse, common-law partner or parent (if you are a child under 22 years of age); and
- he or she was employed on a full-time basis by a Canadian business or in the public service of Canada or of a province during the period you accompanied him or her.

Evidence that you are accompanying a permanent resident

You must provide supporting documents to prove that:

- The person you are accompanying is a permanent resident;
- You are the spouse, common-law partner or child of that person; and
- The permanent resident you are accompanying meets his or her own residency obligation

Supporting documents may include:

- marriage license
- child's birth certificate, baptismal document, and/or adoption or guardianship document
- school and/or employment records
- association or club memberships
- passports or other travel documents
- documents indicating that the person you are accompanying meets his or her own residency obligation

OPTION 4. Absence while in possession of a valid Returning Resident Permit.

You may count each day you spent outside of Canada with a valid Returning Resident Permit.

Humanitarian and Compassionate Grounds

If you are unable to meet the residency obligation, CIC will consider any compelling humanitarian and compassionate factors in your individual circumstances that may justify the retention of permanent resident status.
CIC will notify you if this additional assessment is required.

Appendix B - Photo Specifications

TAKE THIS SHEET WITH YOU TO THE PHOTOGRAPHER

Permanent Resident Card photos are not the same as passport photos.

- You may wear non-tinted and tinted prescription glasses as long as your eyes are clearly visible. Make sure that your eyes are not hidden by glare on the lenses. Sunglasses are not acceptable.
- A hairpiece or other cosmetic accessory is acceptable if it does not disguise your normal appearance and you wear the accessory on a regular basis.
- The photos must clearly show your face. If you may not remove your head covering for religious reasons, make sure your full facial features are visible.
- Photos must have been taken within the last 12 months to ensure an up-to-date likeness.
- Photos may be either black and white or colour.

Notes to the photographer

The two photos must:

- show a full front view of the person's head showing full face centred in the middle of the photo;
- be clear, well-defined and taken against a plain white background without shadows;
- be produced from the same unretouched film or from the same file capturing the digital image or from two identical photos exposed simultaneously by a split-image or multi-lens camera;
- be original photos (not taken from any existing photo);
- measure between 25 mm and 35 mm (1" and 1 3/8") from chin to crown;
- have a 35 mm x 45 mm (1 3/8" x 1 3/4") finished size;
- be on photographic paper that has a backing which accepts and retains the date. Photos without this backing are not acceptable;
- be on prints that are well-fixed and washed to prevent discolouration;
- bear the date the photo was taken (not the date the photo was printed) directly on the back of one print (stick-on labels are not acceptable).
