Application for Transfer or Confirmation of a Visa

Who should use this form?

You should use this form if:

- your previous passport/travel document has expired and you need your visa endorsement to be transferred to your new passport/travel document
- you have lost or damaged your passport/travel document and need your visa endorsement to be transferred to your new passport/travel document
- you need confirmation of your New Zealand immigration status
- you were granted a residence permit under the Immigration Act 1987 and wish to have your passport endorsed with a residence class visa.

Do not use this form if you are a New Zealand citizen. Use New Zealand Citizen Endorsement Application (INZ 1174).

What evidence should you provide?

- If you want to transfer your visa endorsement into your new passport/travel document, send your previous passport or travel document and your new passport.
- If you have lost or damaged your passport/travel document, provide your new passport/travel document, and evidence showing that the loss of the passport or travel document has been reported to the New Zealand police and your High Commission or Embassy.
- If you arrived before 2 April 1974 and you no longer have your original passport, you must provide evidence that you have lived continuously in either New Zealand or Australia since 2 April 1974 (for example, your new passport, evidence of your non-New Zealand citizenship, rates demands, driver licence, receipted power bills, income tax returns, school records, or employment references).

- If you were granted a residence permit under the Immigration Act 1987 and wish to have a residence class visa endorsed in your passport, please provide evidence of your permit.
- If you are an Australian citizen and you wish to have your passport endorsed with a residence class visa, please provide your Australian passport.
- If you have been granted a label-less visa, and you require evidence of your visa endorsed in your passport, please provide your passport.
- Note: You do not need a visa label in your passport to travel to, enter, or remain in New Zealand. Your visa is held in Immigration New Zealand's electronic system. Airlines, New Zealand government agencies, education providers and employers can check your visa electronically, or through the Immigration Contact Centre.

Where do you send your application?

Send your application to your nearest Immigration New Zealand office. For office addresses see our website www.immigration.govt.nz/contactus.

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

About the information you provide

Deciding whether you are eligible for a visa

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to decide whether you are eligible for a visa.

The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 3705, Wellington, New Zealand. Do not send your application to this address.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Deciding whether you are eligible to board a flight to New Zealand

The information we collect may also be used to determine whether you are allowed to board a flight to New Zealand.

We will not share your personal information with airline check-in agents; however, we will send a boarding message to the airline check-in agent based on the information you have provided in this form.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies.

If you are in New Zealand, you can ask to see the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary.

VisaView

It is an offence to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work with Immigration New Zealand's online VisaView system. Disclosure of information through VisaView is authorised by legislation.

If you believe that an employer has been given the wrong entitlement information about you via VisaView, you may contact the Immigration Contact Centre (0508 558 855) to request correction of that information.
