Registration and Fees: The cost of the IFS training is $3,400, payable in six installments over the training period as a courtesy to participants. Space is limited to 30 participants. A limited number of graduate student slots at a reduced fee of $2,500 are available with student ID. Applications will be evaluated as they are received. Slots are filled on a first-come, first served basis. This training is for professionals in the Human Services fields and is a non-credit continuing education program. Please enclose your resume or curriculum vita with your application. Groups of 3 or more receive a 15% discount ($2,890).

A $200 non-refundable deposit is required to secure your place in the training, which is applied to the tuition. In the event that all spaces are filled, your deposit will be returned to you.

Please note: Tuition is set for the training as a whole, not by individual days or weekends. Once registered, participants are responsible for full payment for the training program.

To register, clip and mail the registration form with your resume and deposit check made out to "CCSU" or credit information. An information packet with directions, accommodations, etc. will be sent to you on registration.

CE Credits: Central Connecticut State University, a regionally-accredited institution, provides non-credit Continuing Education programs and courses for professionals. This course, designated as MFIP 610, counts for 108 contact hours. A Certificate of Completion is provided at the end of the program and an official university transcript is on file and available through the university Registrar's office.

Policies: We adhere to the general policies of the Center for Self Leadership (CSL), unless specified otherwise in this registration form. The CSL policies may be found at www.selfleadership.org.
