In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullity action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. - Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties.
- Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144).

The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response.
