We understand that this amount will be returned less the amount deducted by the landlord for unpaid rent and/or damages. We accept responsibility for damages which each individual and each individual's pets or friends cause. We will reimburse each other for the part of their security deposit withheld for those damages.

RENT

The total rent according to the terms of our lease agreement with our landlord for the dwelling is $_____.

Each co-tenant is responsible for the total. Rent will be paid monthly to the landlord, in the amount of

All utilities including phone, gas, electric, water, and cable will be shared equally unless noted in the Supplemental space.

MOVING OUT

If, for whatever reasons, a co-tenant moves out of the dwelling, that co-tenant realizes it is primarily their responsibility to find a replacement. They promise to look for a replacement roommate who is acceptable to all present roommates and to Landlord. If one of the roommates moves out, all remaining roommates will also attempt to find a replacement. We understand the need to be reasonable in accepting a replacement roommate.

If a co-tenant moves out of the dwelling and a replacement roommate has not been found, that person realizes that they are still legally responsible to all other roommates for paying their share of the rent and utility bills.

We understand that an individual can be held responsible to the landlord and/or the utility companies for the entire rent and/or utility bills if any roommate(s) fail to fulfill their part of this agreement.

Any roommate who defaults under this agreement (and his/her guarantor) shall be liable to the other roommates for any expenses or damages incurred by the other roommates as a result of such default.
